

GRAFTER IS ARRESTED

LASHED TO HELM SHE GUIDES SHIP

Wife of the Master of Crippled Craft Takes Wheel.

MACHIAS, Me., Nov. 27.—The heroic fortitude of the captain's wife, Mrs. Frank McGuire, who stood lashed to the wheel during the severe gale that swept the New England coast from Sunday, November 11, to the following Wednesday evening, is due largely to the safety of the schooner Gold Hunter, of Blue Hills, Maine, which worked her way into this harbor yesterday, eleven days overdue from Portland. The little vessel showed plainly the marks of the storm. Her deck was swept clean and her hull was in tatters but the hull withstood the terrific pounding it received.

The Gold Hunter, with Captain McGuire's wife and one man for an assistant, left Portland November 10 with a cargo of this port. Not a word was heard from the vessel until noon yesterday when a message came from the vessel stating that the weather was clear and the vessel was on its way to Portland.

GALE SPLITS MAINSAIL.
A gust of wind split the mainsail for the vessel and carried away the top. Without her headsails the schooner became unmanageable and the crew tried to get the vessel to anchor. The vessel was then anchored in the harbor and the crew waited for the vessel to be towed to the wharf.

CRAFT WALLEWS WIDELY.
With the craft wallowing widely in the trough of the sea, this task was most difficult. With great patience and consummate seamanship, the two men worked for hours to get the vessel to the wharf. Mrs. McGuire, lashed to the wheel, aided as well as she could by what little steering was possible on the almost helpless craft.

Finally the foremast was rigged, double-reefed, and while the two men clung exhausted to the mast, Mrs. McGuire brought the vessel around head-up to the wind and held her there for forty-eight hours.

DRIFTS 98 MILES.
Before the fury of the gale the vessel drifted out to sea for 98 miles off Mount Desert Rock. In all this it was impossible to cook food or even heat any coffee. Kept up only by excitement and pluck, Mrs. McGuire clung to her post through the height of the gale, while Captain McGuire and his assistant attended to their little sail, which continued to break from its fastenings. It was a man's work at the wheel, with the helm "kicking" strongly to the wild plunges of the ship, but the endurance of the rugged North woman was equal to the test.

ALL HANDS SAFE.
November 18, the gale abated and the two men rigged temporary sails before Mrs. McGuire could be relieved from her post. All hands were exhausted with their struggles and exposure, and under such scanty canvas as could be set it was hard and slow work bringing the Gold Hunter into port, where she had about been given up for lost.

FRANK BELL IN THE DRAG NET

The police have in custody a man giving the name of Frank Bell, whom they believe is a professional thief. Bell was taken into custody by Acting Sergeant Brown and Policeman McKeegan. He had in his possession a sack, which he said contained blankets and a pair of rubber boots. It was found, however, that the sack contained a pair of shoes. Bell is being detained at the city prison, awaiting an investigation of his record.

LAD IS UNDER ARREST CHARGED WITH ASSAULT ON TEN-YEAR-OLD GIRL

WHEN EDWARD SATHER OF BERKELEY, THE ALLEGED ASSAILANT OF ROSIE MONK, WAS ARRESTED LATE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON AND TAKEN BEFORE THE GIRL, SHE BURST INTO TEARS AND CRIED OUT: "MAMA, THAT IS THE MAN." THIS MORNING THE FATHER OF THE GIRL SWORE TO A WARRANT, CHARGING SATHER WITH A FELONY. THE ACCUSED IS NOW IN THE COUNTY JAIL, AWAITING BONDSMEN, HIS BAIL BEING FIXED AT $5000.

EDMUND SATHER arrested and identified as having made an attack on a little Berkeley girl.

Rosie Monk Identifies Man Who, It Is Alleged, Was the Principal in Dastardly Outrage.

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—As predicted in THE TRIBUNE yesterday, an arrest was made last evening in the case of little ten-year-old Rosie Monk, who was attacked by a man in an automobile about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon on Parker street in West Berkeley. Edward Sather, a chauffeur for Dr. Beardorf, has been fully identified as the person who, it is alleged, attacked Rosie Monk. He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective H. A. Jamison, of the Berkeley police department. When he was taken before the girl, she burst into tears and cried out: "Mama, that is the man."

This morning V. M. Monk, the father of the girl, swore to a warrant charging Sather with assault with intent to commit rape. Justice Edgar fixed the bail at $500.

Sather is now in the county jail, awaiting until his father can find bondsmen. Last March Young Sather was charged with burglarizing a carpenter shop. After a jury trial he was acquitted in Judge Harris' court.

GRAND JURY RESUMES PROBE OF DENS

Coffroth Is Again Summoned to Testify.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—The grand jury this morning resumed its inquiry into charges of extortion from various resorts that existed before the fire.

Among those summoned to appear before the jury as witnesses were James W. Coffroth, Douglas Young and B. E. Nathanson.

At 12:30 o'clock the grand jury excluded all witnesses until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

NEGRESS PICKS POCKETS DEFTLY

Another victim of a clever negress pickpocket has reported the loss of his valuables to the police. He is Christo Kohino of 508 Eight street. The colored thief accuses her intended victims on the streets, becomes very familiar and leads them into a restaurant. There she picks their pockets unsuspected. Kohino lost a $15 gold chain and $35 in gold in this manner. He has furnished the police with a good description of the woman pickpocket, and it is believed that her operations will be stopped and she will be placed behind prison bars. The police have received several reports from victims of the woman, who declares that she is so deft-fingered that she can remove money from a purse and put the empty pocket book back in the pocket without arousing suspicion.

GEORGE GREINER RETURNS FROM EAST

George Greiner, one of the proprietors of the Piedmont Cafe, has returned from a three months trip to the Eastern States and was accompanied by Mrs. Greiner. They visited the principal points of interest in the East and also the parents of Mr. Greiner at El Paso, Illinois, whom he found in good health, after being separated from them for over fifteen years. The trip was a most enjoyable one, but at the same time Mr. and Mrs. Greiner are glad to get back to the most equable climate on earth—Oakland.

NAUGHTY POST CARDS AND BLUSHING GIRLS CAUSE A POLICE RAID

VULGARITY OF DISPLAY IS TABOOED

CHIEF OF POLICE WILL DETAIL CENSOR OF PUBLIC MORALS

Eye of Virtue and Modesty Must not be Offended Hereafter.

"Those obscene and vulgar postal cards must be taken from display. I will immediately detail a man who will warn the dealers in such vile stationery to take them from their windows and card racks, where children and women have to gaze at them while purchasing pretty missives to send to their friends," quoted Chief of Police Wilson, to a TRIBUNE reporter, when shown a selection of postals gathered from the various notions stores, art stores and drug counters along Washington street and Broadway.

LETTER TO TRIBUNE.

The matter concerning these obscene missives, which generally come from some anonymous source, was brought to light by the following letter:

NAUGHTY POSTAL CAUSES WOMAN TO LOSE WEIGHT.

"To the Editor of THE TRIBUNE: I am sending a copy of this letter to the Mayor of this city in order to see whether he does not think it about time for the police authorities to restrict the further growth in intensity and extensiveness of the public display of obscene and vulgar picture postcards and other illustrations in the stores of Oakland. Some time ago a scandal arose in San Francisco about this matter—before the fire, conditions there were almost as bad as they are now in Oakland. Why don't the school authorities, the priests and ministers, and various other agencies for the restriction of impure and indecent public displays, arouse to a realization of this matter? Are they also absorbed in trying to make Oakland a rival of San Francisco as the 'cornerstone of hell' for good business reasons? The coming municipal campaign will be made upon issues arising out of the present wide-open policy of the City of Oakland, unless some effort is now put forth to hold in check the exploitation of licentiousness for business purposes. Of course the picture obscenity and vulgarity is a mere detail in the whole swift degeneracy of public morals; but attention to details is often the best proof of sincere devotion to a purpose.

"I wonder if the editor will have nerve enough and public spirit enough to give this communication space, even though it deals with a subject that may be unpopular for newspaper notoriety and is signed by a writer who prefers to use a pseudonym instead of his real name.

"Yours for public-spirited courage,"

"B. T."

NOT GATHERING PASTELS.

"I have not paid much attention to these pictures," said the chief, "for my duties have been keeping me from looking in windows.

HE TOOK DOWN THE PICTURE.

"One day, some time ago, as I was passing down Washington street, I noticed a gathering of little boys and girls looking in a window at what seemed to be a picture of a man. I stepped over and saw a picture that was not moralizing to anyone. It was a picture of a man in a business house. I entered the place and informed the manager to take it out. He said: 'That is all right, and I assured him in the negative, and that if he did not take it down I would arrest him. The picture was withdrawn from display and destroyed.

TO WARN DEALERS.

"The same warning will be sounded to the people who decorate their show windows with similar literature, and who openly sell these licentious postals, such as you have there.

WILL BE INVESTIGATED.

"I am glad that attention has been called to this matter, which will be properly investigated. It is demoralizing to permit the growing generation to behold such pictures in the stores or anywhere.

MORTIFYING TO CLERKS.

When a TRIBUNE reporter made the rounds of the stores, carrying on the postal card business, and asked clerks, in most places young ladies, to kindly count the number of postals he had taken from the rack, they invariably blushed and became very mortified over the humiliation of selling such vulgar articles. The young lady clerks whispered and snickered among themselves as the art collector of THE TRIBUNE was gathering the evidence. In one place they even declined to count the postals, which heartiness made an unpleasant duty to perform.

ABE RUEF GOES TO MEET GENE

Political Boss on Way to Greet Schmitz.

SAN FRANCISCO, NOV. 27.

T. CAMPBELL, A BUILDING INSPECTOR EMPLOYED BY THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS, WAS ARRESTED TODAY AT NOON ON THE COMPLAINT OF PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD, DUFFY, WHO CHARGES CAMPBELL WITH EXTORTION.

IT IS ALLEGED THAT CAMPBELL RECEIVED A FEE FROM J. J. STAHL OF 96 FULTON STREET FOR DELIVERING TO HIM A PERMIT TO ERECT A STRUCTURE.

IT IS BELIEVED OTHER CASES OF EXTORTION ARE BEING INVESTIGATED BY THE POLICE.

Abe Ruef, smiling and surrounded by a number of his friends including a few who, like himself, face indictments, left here this morning to welcome Mayor Schmitz home from abroad. Many of Attorney Ruef's friends accompanied him across the bay and as they parted at the Sixteenth street station the attorney waved farewell until the train had passed from view.

TO WELCOME SCHMITZ.

Throughout San Francisco great preparations are being made to welcome Mayor Schmitz.

Fully 2000 men comprising the employees of the municipality and county will gather at the ferry building tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock and with three rousing cheers welcome the city's chief as he steps from the ferry.

WEAR SCHMITZ BADGES.

All the city and county employees are wearing Schmitz badges upon which are printed words of welcome. In the parade tomorrow night banners and boxes inscribed with legends showing their trust in the mayor will be a feature of the march.

CHIEF OF POLICE WILSON, who today ordered a raid on stores selling "naughty" postal cards.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC WINS ITS CONTEST FOR A FRANCHISE

Satisfactory Amendments Are Conceded and Adopted, and Opposition to Grant Is Promptly Withdrawn.

The conflict over the acquisition of a franchise for the privilege of constructing and operating a railroad track beginning at a point on the Fruitvale avenue line of the Southern Pacific adjacent to the north shore of the tidal canal which has been planned to serve the industries which are being established near the eastern boundary of the city on the flat land at the head of Brooklyn basin was ended satisfactorily to all concerned yesterday at the meetings of the County Board of Supervisors and the City Council. Concessions were made before both of these public bodies by the officers and attorneys of the Southern Pacific Company, lessees of the Central Pacific Company, the original applicant for the privilege, which resulted finally, at last evening's meeting of the Council, in the withdrawal of the application and opposition of the Union Belt Railway. The application of the Central Pacific had been filed last August. It was shown at the hearing had before the Board of Supervisors that the proposed track was intended as an "industry line" whose sole purpose was to give the manufacturers, which are being located and developed in the neighborhood of the western end of the tidal canal, those transportation facilities which they require and that the application for the franchise was made in response to the repeated requests for such service made by the owners of large tracts of land fronting on the tidal canal and the head of Brooklyn basin during the past two years. It was shown also that all property interests affected by the proposed "industry track" either favored its construction and joined in a petition that the Central Pacific Company's application be granted or waived the right of protest.

Subsequent to the filing of the application of the Central Pacific Company, the Union Belt Railway was organized and incorporated by some of the manufacturers located in the territory to be served by the proposed track and an application was made for a franchise covering the same route. The point of contention raised by the opposition was that the Central Pacific was aiming to monopolize the water front on the tidal canal and the basin, to the exclusion of all rival railroads, present and prospective and that if its application were granted the new road would be under its exclusive control and would be operated to the disadvantage of other railroad companies and the industries to be served. The application of the Union Belt Railway therefore, provided for a franchise to construct a belt line along the water front which should be operated for all railroads entering Oakland on equal terms.

OPPOSITION WITHDRAWN BEFORE THE COUNCIL

Important Conciliatory Amendments Are Readily Agreed to by the S. P.
Company.

Following a brief consideration of the application of the Central Pacific Railway Company for a franchise to construct and operate an industrial line along the tidal canal in East Oakland the city council last night practically agreed to grant the company its petition. Opposition to the application was made by R. M. Fitzgerald, attorney for the Union Belt Railway of Oakland but his objections were withdrawn when several concessions were readily made by W. S. Palmer, general superintendent of the northern district of the Southern Pacific company. The application of the belt railway which asked for a similar franchise was not brought up and the petition of the Central Pacific Railway Company was referred after it had been amended to the ordinance and judiciary committee of the council which will consider the legality of the measure in conjunction with the city attorney. The matter will come up before the council for final disposition at its regular meeting next Monday night and as all opposition has been withdrawn the ordinance granting the franchise to the Central Pacific will in all probability be passed to print.

The meeting of the council last night was an adjourned session and the railroad franchise applications constituted one of the most important matters before it. This proposition provides for the right to operate an industrial line from the intersection of the eastern boundary line of the city and Park avenue westward through private property bordering on the tidal canal. The Central Pacific was represented by Attorney A. A. Moore, Superintendent Palmer and J. S. Foulds while Attorney R. M. Fitzgerald appeared in the interests of the recently incorporated Union Belt Railway of Oakland.

President Fitzgerald opened the meeting by announcing the applications of the two companies were up for consideration. The request of the Central Pacific was taken up first.

PURPOSE OF THE CENTRAL PACIFIC
After the application was read Attorney Moore asked to be allowed to address the council and said in part: "This application, gentlemen, is one that was not expected to arouse any opposition. It is simply this: There are properties along the tidal canal that are adapted to commercial purposes. In order to make this land more desirable the property owners asked the Central Pacific Railway Company to put in spur tracks so that better freight transportation facilities might be afforded. That is all there is to it as far as we are concerned."

BELT RAILWAY REQUEST
"We have since learned, however, that a so-called belt line has also made application for a franchise to construct and operate a track over the same route. These two applications should be kept separate. Ours was the first on file and the first to be heard. We do not ask to be allowed to put in a belt line just a commercial spur track. There are two property owners on the western extremity of our proposed route who do not desire a spur track over their land so that we will later ask permission to change our application slightly altering our proposed route."

I will say now that there are only a few feet of this route over which this council has jurisdiction, that is where it crosses Park avenue. The remainder of the track would be laid on private property."

ATTORNEY IS QUESTIONED.
At this juncture Councilman Pendleton interposed a question: "Can you operate a railroad over private property without first obtaining a franchise?"

Some sort of a franchise or permission is generally needed," was Moore's reply. "That is, where it touches a public street."

Pendleton—"Well, suppose the line should be entirely on private property?"

Moore—"There is a question underlying that but in the present instance we are applying for a franchise and are not attempting to construct and operate a line without such a measure."

TRACK RIGHTS OVER PRIVATE PROPERTY.

Superintendent Palmer then took the floor and joined in the discussion of the point raised by Councilman Pen-

In the discussion which took place at both meetings yesterday, General Superintendent Palmer very plainly stated that the Central Pacific had no objection to any other railroad invading the territory in dispute provided that it adopted a route either inside or outside of that which the Central Pacific had laid out in its application; that his company would freely consent to grant switching privileges over its line at a reasonable compensation for the service, providing the cars were delivered at reasonable points adjacent to the "industry track," that being the prior petitioner and having its main tracks in operation in the immediate vicinity it was fairly entitled to the privilege and could construct the line earlier and operate it more satisfactorily to all concerned than any other company. He disclaimed the intention of the company to shut out any rival railroad from the water front, pointing out the route had been so laid as to leave the water front open to occupation by others. He, moreover, freely expressed the suspicion that the Union Belt Company had been organized by a rival corporation to the Central Pacific for the sole purpose of forcing it to grant the joint enjoyment of exclusive privileges elsewhere which it possessed and which could not be reached by rivals now.

But the strongest plea of all, and the one which undoubtedly had the greatest effect, was the showing made by Mr. Palmer that the Southern Pacific Company had spent millions of dollars for the improvement of its system and the upbuilding of Oakland and that it was paying $3,000,000 annually in wages to its operators residing in this city. These weighty presentations resulted in the passage by the Supervisors of the ordinance granting the Central Pacific Company's application, after it had been amended so as to provide for the switching of the cars of other companies, at a fair compensation, when delivered to or from the industries to be served at a point reasonably convenient to the "industry track." And at the meeting of the City Council, which followed in the evening, an additional concession was made to the effect that no regular through passenger or freight trains should be run over the track. The Union Belt Company thereupon withdrew its own application and all opposition to the granting of the franchise to the Central Pacific. Although the franchise was referred back to the Judiciary Committee and the City Attorney for a report on the legal points involved, it will doubtless be passed at the next meeting of the Council. The Southern Pacific Company has, therefore, won out, as it was undoubtedly fair it should do so under the circumstances.

SUPERVISORS PASS THE S. P. FRANCHISE

Satisfactory Concessions Made for the Use of the Track by All Other Railroads.

After a lengthy debate on the subject of a railway franchise the Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon decided the dispute between the Union Belt Railroad and the Southern Pacific Railway Company for a single track on Glascock street in East Oakland.

HOW THE VOTE STOOD.
The vote on the franchise was as follows:
Ayes—Horner, Kelley, Talcott, Mitchell—4
Nays—Rowe

ROUTE OF THE FRANCHISE.
The route of the proposed road is as follows: From a point on the main line of the Southern Pacific Railway on Fruitvale avenue 27 feet southerly from the north line of Chapman street produced easterly and extending thence on a curve to the right across private property and intervening streets to a point in the center line of Glascock street, thence westerly along the center line of Glascock street 1337.8 feet to a point 307.8 feet westerly from the west line of Peterson street thence on a curve to the left 200 feet to a point, thence westerly on a tangent to the eastern limits of the city of Oakland.

SPUR TRACKS
The franchise also conveys to the dileton saying: "Tracks over private property are generally laid without regard to franchises. They are constructed under the general law which gives a railroad the right to conduct its business."

Councilman Donaldson—"But if you desired to run a spur track into private property, which you would have to condemn would you then need a franchise?"

Attorney Foulds replied to this query: "The Supreme Court has held that a railroad does not have to apply for a franchise before it commences its condemnation proceedings."

CLAIMS OF THE CENTRAL PACIFIC.

Superintendent Palmer then took the floor and presented a map of the proposed line which he explained in detail to the council, saying in part:

"Last fall a few of the property own-company in question the right to construct, maintain and operate all necessary or convenient spur tracks leading from the proposed railway to industries that may hereafter be established upon properties upon the line."

SERVICE TO OTHER COMPANIES.
The Southern Pacific will be obliged to haul at a reasonable rate, all cars of other companies consigned to or loaded at industries on the proposed road as also to complete the track inside of six months under penalty of forfeiture of the franchise.

STREET REPAIRS
The company is also required to macadamize or otherwise pave and keep in repair the portion of Glascock street occupied by the track between the rails and two feet on either side of the same similar to adjacent pavement to prevent the storage of cars upon the track except for the purpose of loading and unloading freight to construct and maintain suitable culverts for the purpose of draining the street and to enable wagons to cross the rails without inconvenience.

The ordinance goes into effect December 8th.

REPORT OF ROAD FRANCHISE COMMITTEE.
The franchise was granted on the recommendation of the Committee on Bridges and Franchises, contained in ers along the tidal canal asked us to lay spur tracks into their land. We were some time arranging for private rights of way and did not make application to you for a franchise until a few months ago. Our issue is just this, we ask for nothing but what is fair and equitable, a right of way across twenty-seven and a half feet. The so-called belt line has asked for a franchise over the same spot. We claim it would be gross injustice that the property owners should be denied their request to us for a spur track. The belt line people could construct their line almost anywhere.

NOT OPPOSING A BELT LINE.
"We are not opposed to the belt line and are not fighting it. I have yet to see a Southern Pacific man who has said one word against the belt line concern. But we will fight to the last."

America is a nation of dyspeptics

The use of lard in cooking is the main cause. For your own protection you should divorce yourself from all food cooked with lard. Instead, use Cottolene, the purest and most palatable shortening possible to produce.

Cottolene is made from refined vegetable oil and choice beef suet, is full of richness, yet free from dyspepsia.

It will give you better food, and food which will agree with you.

Cottolene is never sold in bulk. It comes in sealed white pails, with red label and band. In the center of the label is our trade mark—a steer's head in cotton plant wreath. Cottolene is not exposed to all the odors which surround it; lard is, because it usually comes in bulk.

The quality of Cottolene is guaranteed. We stand behind it. You take no chances in its use.

Forstall dyspepsia by the use of Cottolene. Any good grocer will supply you.

A thorough trial of Cottolene will make you wonder why you stuck to hog lard so long.

COTTOLENE was granted a GRAND PRIZE (highest possible award) over all other cooking fats at the recent Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and food cooked with COTTOLENE another GRAND PRIZE.

"Home Help" is a book of 300 choice recipes, edited by Mrs. Rorer, is yours for a 2 cent stamp, if you address The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago.

A NEW FEATURE—The patent air-tight top on this pail is for the purpose of keeping COTTOLENE clean, fresh and wholesome; it also prevents it from absorbing all disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

DOES BRADLEY TAKE A DRINK?

Trustee Olsen Says He Does While Defending His Own Saloon Action.

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—Some bitter rapartee on the saloon question occurred between Trustees Nels Olsen and J. H. Bradley of the conference committee of improvement clubs at the meeting of the trustees last night, when a resolution of condemnation reflecting on Trustee Olsen from the conference committee was read. The trustee took exception to the resolution and stated that while he was not ashamed of the stand he had taken in the matter, he knew of no reason why he should have been singled out as the subject of condemnation.

Bradley stated that while he did not wish to cast any reflection that the abyss existing between that part of the city and the remaining portion was caused by the saloons, he believed that the western portion of the city would be greatly benefited if all the saloons were eliminated.

Olsen, at a previous meeting of the Board, recommended that liquor licenses be granted to the restaurants and as a result the communication was sent to the board.

During the heated discussion that ensued between Bradley and the trustee, the latter said:

"I guess, if the truth were known, Bradley takes a drink himself, sometimes."

The following is the full text of the communication from the conference committee:

"At a recent meeting of the conference committee the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, that the conference committee condemn the action of Trustee Olsen in offering a certain ordinance to amend the city charter by restaurants and saloons, and that the board grant no more licenses to restaurants, saloons or other places."

"Also, that the conference committee in future refrain from outside places and do not allow any wagons."

LEAVES FOR WASHINGTON

Congressman Knowland Commences His Journey to Capital City.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 27.—Congressman J. R. Knowland and his family left yesterday morning on the overland limited for Washington where apartments at the Arlington have been secured.

Before leaving yesterday Congressman Knowland spoke briefly of the work he believed would be accomplished at the session of congress soon to open. One of the measures to be discussed is the river and harbor appropriation bill for California.

Congressman Knowland goes to Washington well prepared to advance the interests of the section about the bay. He has maps and other data showing what improvements are needed about the bay. His plans are endorsed by the commercial organizations of Oakland and are complete in every detail. Congressman Knowland has wired Chairman Burton of the river and harbor committee, that he has all the plans and work will commence immediately on his arrival.

Congressman Knowland stated that one of the important hold-over measures of last session was the ship subsidy bill. The bill will likely be passed at the ensuing session. The new immigration bill which provides an educational test will also be voted on. There is legislation on the Panama canal and other matters of importance to come up for passage.

Though ill for a number of weeks during the past two months Congressman Knowland is now in fine health and ready to do the work necessary for the section he represents.

HARMFUL STOMACH DOSING

No Need of It When Hyomei Is Used to Cure Catarrh.

Physicians and scientists agree that the less medicine one swallows the better it is in keeping the system healthy. Hyomei is recommended by leading physicians throughout this and other catarrhal sections.

When this treatment is used in catarrhal troubles, there is no stomach dosing, for the medicine is taken in with the air you breathe, and goes right to the spot where the catarrhal germs are present, healing the inflamed and irritated mucous membrane, killing the disease germs and entering the blood with the oxygen, driving out all catarrhal germs from the system.

Do not try to cure catarrh of the head by putting medicine into your stomach—this is neither a scientific nor a common-sense treatment. Breathe the healing balsams of Hyomei in a few days you will notice relief, and its continued use will result in a complete and lasting cure.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1; extra bottles, if needed, 50 cents. We do not want anyone's money unless Hyomei gives relief and cure, and we are absolutely sure that money will be refunded unless the remedy gives satisfaction.

All druggists should be able to supply you with Hyomei or we will send it by mail on receipt of price, and every package is sold with the distinct understanding that it costs nothing unless it cures. Write us today for a symptom blank, which we will send you free, together with treatise on Catarrh and how to cure it. When you fill in and return to us the symptom blank, our consulting physicians will give you your case their best care and attention, and write you a letter of advice without charge. The R. T. Booth Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

NOTABLE ADDITION TO THE BERKELEY ARTISTIC COLONY

MISS ALYCE GATES.

Miss Alyce Gates Takes Up Her Residence in College Town, Where She Has Opened Studio.

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—The colony of artists and singers who have flocked to Berkeley has been increased by the addition of Miss Alyce Gates, who, since her return from New York, has been living in San Francisco. Miss Gates' new home in Berkeley is at 2510 Elgin street. Miss Gates intends to keep her studio in San Francisco, but will probably remain in the college town for a year or more.

As her special study for many years has been lyric and dramatic art, this talented singer is looked upon as a valuable acquisition to dramatic circles of this side of the bay. Miss Gates will be at home Sunday afternoons from 7 to 10 after December 1 and her attractive home will doubtless be musical and dramatic center for the talented people about the bay.

CONSOLIDATE ENGLISH CLUB

Literary and Dramatic Clubs of University Are Now Amalgamated Into One Body.

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—The literary and dramatic clubs of the University have consolidated as the English Club. The old organizations which have combined to make the new are the Occident Publishing Company, the former English Club and the Dramatic and In-the-Mean-time Clubs. The new English Club will undertake the publication of the Occident Magazine, the production of plays that would have otherwise been taken up by the Dramatic Club, and will attempt to broaden the literary field of the former English Club. All the organizations that have been assimilated will enter the new plan with their entire membership, and the membership of the new club will be limited to forty.

With the amalgamation that has been brought about the Occident Publishing Company has been done away with and the Occident Magazine will henceforth be under the wing of the new club.

The first meeting of the new club was held Friday afternoon and a constitution adopted. The following officers were elected to hold office until the end of next semester: President, J. R. Gubbart, '07; vice-president, Louise Menefee, '07; secretary, Irma Weil, '07; treasurer, Rosseter Mikel, '07.

The following standing committees have been appointed: J. Fletcher, '07; G. Edwards, '07; Rosseter Mikel, '07; D. Levy, '08; Irma Weil, '07.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, '07; Carl Whitmore, '08; Gorden Edwards, '07; Elizabeth Markle, '07; Louise Menefee, '07.

NIGHT SCHOOL WILL OPEN MONDAY

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—The West Berkeley night school, under the auspices of the Berkeley Y. M. C. A., will open Monday night, December 3, at the Seventh Street school in West Berkeley. The Board of Education of Berkeley recently gave permission to the Berkeley Y. M. C. A. to use the school for the use of the school.

Besides the work of the grades in the new school, departments of mechanical drawing and other scientific courses will be open to the students.

WILL HOLD JOINT SERVICES

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—The Presbyterian and Methodist of West Berkeley will hold joint Thanksgiving services on Thursday morning at 10:30 at the West Berkeley M. E. church. The Rev. G. H. Wilkins of the Westminster Presbyterian church will deliver the sermon for the occasion. There will be a special musical program rendered.

TO BRADLEY SAN PABLO PARK

Oregon Street to be Parked and an Addition of Ten Feet Added for Sidewalks.

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—A plan to beautify San Pablo Park was set forth in a communication addressed to the City Board of Trustees and read at their regular meeting last evening. The document, which was from the West Berkeley Land Company, was referred to the Street Committee of the Board and was as follows:

"Believing that the beauty of the new San Pablo Park will be greatly enhanced by parking Oregon street, we respectfully suggest that the additional width of ten feet given to this street be apportioned to the sidewalks in order that ample provision may be made for avenues of trees and lawn or shrubbery between the curb and gutters on this, the main approach to the park proper."

We have already begun the construction of handsome stone pillars at the intersection of Oregon street with San Pablo avenue. These, together with the park effect, which only wide sidewalks can give, and the trees which we are proposing to plant at our own expense, will, we believe, form a fitting entrance from San Pablo avenue to the park."

OPPOSES FERTILIZER PLANT.

The following communication from Secretary J. L. Tisdale of the Conference Committee of Improvement Clubs was read:

"At the last meeting of the Conference Committee the question of the odor from Butchertown came up for discussion and the result was that the committee adopted the following resolution which the secretary was directed to transmit to the Board of Trustees:

"Resolved, That this committee opposes the erection of a fertilizer plant proposed to be established within the corporate limits of Berkeley and that the Board is hereby petitioned not to allow the erection of such a plant."

AUDITOR REPORTS BALANCE.

City Auditor M. L. Hausman reported that there was a balance of $33,433.55 on hand in the city treasury. This sum is distributed as follows: General fund, $18,320.19; street fund, $7,225.73; sewer bond fund, $4,640.00; electric light bond fund, $1,561.02; school bond fund (1893), $2,357.09; school bond fund (1900), $2,870.05.

BERKELEY PERSONALS

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—R. Bender, captain of the first team to play Stanford, was in Berkeley last week.

L. E. Brown of the American Fuel Company is on a flying business trip to Los Angeles.

G. Lewis has moved into his new residence at 1232 King street. He formerly lived at 1228 Prince street.

G. W. Foster and daughter, Miss M. Wilson, of Eureka were recent guests of O. C. Foster at 3029 Harp street, South Berkeley.

A. R. Georgeson, a Eureka capitalist, who has been visiting A. C. Foster of South Berkeley, has returned home.

Charles Butters of Claremont is here paying a short visit at the Butters home.

JACOBI WILL GIVE PIANO RECITAL

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—On Saturday evening next Milton Jacobi will give a piano recital at Wilkins' hall, 2412 Haste street. The program as arranged will be as follows:

Suite (S. Liebling)—4, "Barcarolle"; b, "Am Spinnrad" (at the spinning wheel); c, "Valse"; d, "Canzonetta"; e, "Wellspring (Play of the Waves)"; f, Gavotte Moderne.

Harmonies (Wagner); b, "Hark, Hark, the Lark" (Schubert-Liszt); c, Erikking (Erl King) (Schubert-Liszt); d, Notturmo (Grieg); e, Dance of the Dwarfs (Grieg); f, Scene de Ballet (Poldini).

NETWORK OF CARS WILL RUN

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—Franchises providing for a network of cross-town street car lines in this city were applied for at the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees last night. This action was foretold exclusively last night by THE TRIBUNE. The applications, which were referred to the street committee and the board, were accompanied by $2000 cash.

CROSS-TOWN LINE. One of the lines asked for is on Dwight way, between Shattuck and College avenues.

Another line applied for is on Grove street from University avenue to the north town line.

A third line asked for would run from the eastern end of Russell street to Hillside avenue, and then along Hillside avenue to Ashby avenue, thence along Ashby avenue to Adeline street and then south along Adeline street to Alcatraz avenue.

ABANDON OLD FRANCHISES. Old franchises on Dana street and on portions of Telegraph avenue and Oxford street were asked by the traction company to be abandoned.

WILL TENDER RECEPTION TO THE SCHOOL TEACHERS

INVITATIONS UNIQUE ARE SENT OUT

Social Function to be Given by Unitarian Club—A Good Time in Store for All.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 27.—The teachers of the public schools will be tendered a reception by the Unitarian club, of which Frank Otis is president, in the parlors of the Unitarian church this evening. The following is the unique invitation sent out by the club to those who are to be guests:

"The members of the Unitarian club of Alameda will be at home Tuesday evening, November 27, 1906. They invite their friends to join them in celebrating the close of the tenth prosperous year of the club. Admission will be by card."

A cordial invitation is extended to the teachers in the public schools of Alameda, as guests of honor of the club. This action is in line with the attitude heretofore maintained by the club—that of sympathetic support of our public schools. It is felt that a most effective manifestation of that support can be realized by the bringing about a closer sympathy between teachers on the one hand and parents and citizens on the other.

The evening will be for warm greetings, for the forming of new acquaintances and the renewal of old ones. A general commingling of the members and the guests is desired. There will, therefore, be no set program to interfere with the time-honored freedom from formality.

"But to give a spice of the truly artistic in music, Mr. Mackenzie Gordon will render, during the early part of the evening, several numbers including: 'Si nos versis aculeis' (Hahn); 'Verborghelt' (Wolf); and the Ariosa from 'Il Pagliaccio' (Leoncavallo). Also the Aria from 'Persian Garden' (Lehman); 'My Love's an Arbutus' (C. Villiers Stanford); and 'Maureen' (Needham). Mr. Mackenzie will be accompanied by Mr. Frederick Maurer, Jr. Orchestral music will be provided."

"Dancing may be indulged in; the gymnasium hall, adjoining the church to be open for that purpose. Light refreshments will be served. Guests are urged to consider the occasion wholly informal, and to aid the members of the club in their endeavor to characterize this tenth annual celebration by the same absence of conventionality which has marked previous functions of the club."

PROTECTION FOR FACTORIES

West Berkeley Manufacturers Will Have Fire Protection in Near Future.

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—In answer to a question put before the board last night by Fire Chief James Kenney, the City Board of Trustees announced that the manufacturers who are located in West Berkeley may expect some adequate fire protection in the near future.

The trustees propose to erect a new fire house in the vicinity of Sixth and Cornelia streets. The improvements will be paid for out of the $50,000 fire fund which was recently voted by the citizens of the city.

FELL FROM THE ROOF

Struck the Ground Head Foremost and Yet Charley Galt isn't Hurt Very Much.

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—After falling from the roof of a house and striking the ground head foremost eighteen feet below, last Sunday afternoon, Charles Le Gal, the seven-year-old son of Mrs. C. Le Gal of 2815 Benvenue avenue, is still alive and recovering and has not a single broken bone. In company with another lad residing in the neighborhood, Charles climbed to the roof of a new house next door to where he lives. He succeeded in reaching the top with one hand, but when he took hold of a board it gave way precipitating him head foremost to the ground. His companion also started to fall but, by grabbing hold of some scaffolding, lessened the force of his fall. Young Le Gal was picked up unconscious with bruises about the head and body, a sprained wrist and a wrenched knee. He was later found to have suffered concussion of the brain. The youngster is now rapidly recovering.

THOMPSON-MOORE.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Thompson to Clarence A. Moore took place last night. The couple will spend their honeymoon in the South.

SAY HE HAS NO EXPERIENCE

Police Committee Allege Ryder Is Not Competent to Take Charge of System.

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—Considerable discussion arose over the question of the appointment of a city electrician with full power over the fire and police alarm systems at the regular meeting of the City Board of Trustees last night. Trustee Olson was of the opinion that the incumbent electrician, Worth Ryder, was incompetent to take charge of the new police alarm system and intimated that it might be well to remove him from office and substitute a man capable of caring for both the fire alarm and police alarm systems.

INCUMBENT IS DEFENDED.

Trustee Seid took issue with Olson, claiming that Ryder had performed his work satisfactorily and had given no evidence of incompetency. He maintained that until there was reason for dissatisfaction he could not see why the board should make a change in the office. Ryder is the son of former City Trustee M. L. Ryder and a student at the University of California.

COMMUNICATION FROM POLICE COMMITTEE.

The following communication from the police committee of the board, consisting of Trustees Olson and Faylor was read and placed on the table:

"We, your committee, appointed to investigate the maintenance of the police alarm system, beg to report:

"We find that the maintenance of the police alarm system comes properly under the jurisdiction of the city electrician; we also find that the present city electrician has had no experience with systems of this character, and that the fire alarm system, which is supposed to be under the charge of one person, the city electrician, and as the incumbent has never had charge of systems of this character we would advise the appointment of a competent man conversant with all phases of electricity as city electrician at an adequate salary; and we further recommend that the present city electrician be retained as his assistant, and to that end we herewith submit an amended ordinance."

HE RESIGNS FROM FORCE

Couldn't Earn Money Enough Swinging a Club So Hughes Passes Out.

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—Because he could not earn enough money as a police officer, Officer Robert E. Hughes resigned from the force at the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees last evening. Hughes announces that he intends to become a carpenter, and believes that he can earn at least a third more than he was receiving as a policeman.

On the recommendation of Chief of Police Vollmer, John McClinton was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hughes.

William McCoy and Clarence Wilkoff were appointed special officers to serve as patrolmen without compensation by the city.

Happy Homes

One of the essentials of the happy home of to-day is a fund of information as to right living and the best methods of promoting health and happiness. With proper knowledge, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and are of not less value than the using of the most wholesome foods and the selecting of the best medicinal agents when needed. With the well-informed, medicinal agents are used only when nature needs assistance and while the importance of cleansing the system effectually, when bilious or constipated, has long been known, yet until within recent years it was necessary to resort to oils, salts, extracts of roots, berries and other authorities which were found to be objectionable and to call for constantly increased quantities.

Then physicians having learned that the most excellent laxative and cathartic principles were to be found in certain plants, principally in the leaves, the California Fig Syrup Co. discovered a method of obtaining such principles in their purest condition and of presenting them with pleasant and refreshing liquids in the form most acceptable to the system and the remedy became known as—Syrup of Figs—as figs were used, with the plants, in making it, because of their agreeable taste.

This excellent remedy is now rapidly coming into universal use as the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually without disturbing the natural functions and without unpleasant after effects and its use may be discontinued when it is no longer required.

All who enjoy good health and its blessings should remember that it is the one remedy which physicians and parents well-informed approve and recommend and use and which they and their little ones alike enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all reliable druggists, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, in original package only, having the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs—and the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

DUTCH WOMEN MAKE GOOD SAILORS

MAIDENS TAKE THEIR TRICK AT THE WHEEL AND CLIMB ALOFT UNAFRAID.

Seasickness Does Not Bother Them and They Tread the Deck Like Tars.

It is not necessary to go back to the time of Noah to find women sailors. They may be found today among a certain class of people in Holland, who are probably as near the people of the ark in their primitive virtues as can be found in these degenerate days.

In Zealand and Priesland whole families sometimes go to sea. The captain takes his wife and daughters as well as his sons to help him navigate his vessel, and the girls are as good seamen as their brothers. They take their trick at the wheel and are not a bit afraid of laying aloft to reef and furl sails. They take the lookout on a dark night, minding neither rain nor sleet. Never were there prettier seamen, never rosier and healthier girls than the Dutch sailor maidens. Dressed in their bloomers and red skirts, with the Glenngarry cap surmounting their feminine "crown of glory," they are ready for anything that comes along. Their skirts do not stand around them like a balloon nor trip them in the companionway, and their hats do not tug at anchor wherever there is half a gale.

And then they are not sensick. When other women would think they were heroes if they managed to get on deck at all, the Dutch maidens tread the deck like an old tar and lays aloft as gay as you please.

The vessel is a patriarchal little kingdom, where the father captain rules supreme and the good vroom is the next in command, while the sons and daughters are the crew. When the captain selects his bunk below the wife remains on deck and as mate commands the vessel.

With women in charge, naturally the Dutch galliot is the cleanest thing afloat. It is scraped and holystoned within an inch of its life and then varnished until it looks like a piece of parlor furniture. The Dutch housewife, whose continued dabbling in water, according to Knickerbocker's history of New York, at last developed web feet, evidently takes her habits of cleanliness with her when she goes to sea.

The Dutch galliot is a peculiar vessel. It has a light draft and is flat bottomed. As there is no keel, two boards, one on either side of the vessel, are let down to prevent it from drifting.

They are hauled up and down every time the ship moves and it is claimed by some that they are the origin of the terms larboard and starboard. The motherly old tubs with their two masts and their rounded bows and stern are still seen along the coasts of Holland, but no new vessels of the type are built any more.

Women do not ship for deep sea voyages, but content themselves with the shorter trips of the Baltic and North Sea. In Friesland the fisherman has his family on board his fishing smack, and his daughters work like men, pulling at the oars and dragging in the full nets with the best of them. The Dutch fishermen are often able to accumulate a small fortune, but that makes no change in the tenor of their lives.

In slow, conservative Holland it is not considered the most desirable thing in the world to change your mode of living for that of another class, mistaken supposedly to be higher. So the fisherman's wife who has helped her husband accumulate a snug fortune does not therefore abandon her bloomers and wooden shoes, but walks the beach serenely unconscious that any other style of dressing might be more strable.

AN EXAMPLE OF QUINCY HUMOR.

Mr. Quincy is not classed among the professional humorists, but now and then he says something which entitles him to respectful consideration as a genuine fun-maker. He has done nothing better in that line than his proposition that Mr. Bryan shall decide whether or not the Massachusetts Democracy shall nominate Mr. Moran for governor. Not only is the proposition absurd, but Mr. Quincy knew it was absurd when he made it. That it should have been evolved after a communion of such bright minds as his and Congressman Sullivan's is evidence that hot-weather political plotting is not always sane plotting.—Boston Journal.

60 CENTS A YEAR FOR CLOTHES

Poor Wife Gets $3 for Personal Finery in a Half Decade.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 27.—That sixty cents a year is not sufficient allowance for a husband to give his wife for the purchase of clothes was decided by an East St. Louis court today. James Miller gave his wife this generous sum each of the past five years, according to the testimony of Lotta J. Miller in her cross bill to her husband's suit for divorce.

Besides giving her $3 for personal adornment in five years, he put aside an additional $14 to pay the grocery and meat bills during that period, she says, and alleges that he neglected and starved his eight children. The court granted her a decree.

COUPLE SEALS PASTOR'S LIPS

Wealthy Son of Railroad Official and Pretty Stenographer Wed Secretly.

LAPORTE, Ind., Nov. 27.—Society is agog over the disappearance of Edward Mayne, son of the eastern railroad official, and grandson of the late Ellis Michael, capitalist and manufacturer, and Miss Hazel Peters, an extremely pretty stenographer, who, until she accepted a position in a law office here last spring, lived at St. James place, Chicago. The couple left Laporte in Mayne's automobile.

The Rev. C. Claud Travis, pastor of the Methodist church at Mishawaka, says that Sunday evening he married a Laporte couple, who arrived in an automobile, but he declined to give their names, as he promised not to reveal them for two weeks.

Some years ago Mayne was desperately in love with a prominent society girl and obtained a license to marry her without having secured her consent. Later he returned the license, and it was destroyed. Two years ago his brother, Alfred Mayne, wedded a Laporte girl and the marriage was kept secret for two weeks.

CHARMS OF THIS WOMAN ROUND UP 8 HUSBANDS

She Begins Early in Life and Wins Her Latest Spouse at the Advanced Age of 65.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Polly Baker, aged sixty-five, living at Newburg, Ind., ten miles east of here, is mourning the loss of her eighth husband, who disappeared a few days ago. Up to this time nothing has been heard from him.

Mrs. Baker undoubtedly holds the record in Indiana for being married the largest number of times. Her maiden name was Polly Castle, and she was the daughter of a well known farmer of Warlick county, Ind., who had three wives before his death. Her first husband was Henry Fuquay, of Warlick county, and he lived with her just seven years. A quarrel ensued and a divorce was the result.

The young woman, after being divorced, retired to her father's farm and resolved never to marry again, but she soon changed her mind. It was about the close of the Civil War, and the "boys in blue" were marching home from the southern battlefields, and one of the dashing young soldiers who returned to Newburg from the South was James Fuquay, a cousin of the first husband of the Castle woman. After a short courtship, Fuquay and his cousin's wife were married, and they lived together but eighteen months, when they disagreed and separated, and for the second time Mrs. Fuquay figured in a divorce suit. She again retired to her father's farm, and in a short time a dashing young widower, named James Henry Robinson, was given employment on old man Castle's farm. He wooed the grass widow, and in a short time they united their fortunes, and their married life promised to be uninterrupted. But one day they quarreled, and Mrs. Robinson went to court and obtained a divorce.

She then remained single for a period of seven years. Her fourth husband was George S. Boyden, a well known traveling man of this city. They remained husband and wife for ten years. The woman says her husband was a hard drinker, and this caused a separation. She applied for a divorce and obtained it.

Her fifth husband was S. R. Weed, and he lived but four years after the wedding ceremony was performed. The widow, who was destined to have eight or more husbands, did not remain single long. In a short time she was remarried to her divorced fourth husband, Boyden. One night he came home while despondent and took an overdose of poison and then jumped into a cistern and ended his life.

Mrs. Boyden remained single but a short time, and her seventh marriage was to R. E. Edwards, who did not live with her many moons, securing a divorce.

Three weeks ago the woman was married to William Baker, of this city. Baker went to Newburg to work on the construction of the Evansville & Rockport traction line, and obtained board with the woman who was destined to be his wife. He proposed and she accepted him, and the marriage ceremony was attended by about 100 people.

Mrs. Baker owns considerable real estate in Newburg and Evansville, and is worth about $25,000. Baker lived with his wife less than three weeks. The couple quarreled, and Baker told his spouse goodbye, and said he never expected to see her again. Baker is about forty-seven years old, and a native of Kentucky. This was his first marriage.

A FAITHFUL DOG IS THE CHILD'S GUARD

"PRINCE" KEEPS TIME AND APPEARS DAILY TO ESCORT GIRL HOME.

In Stormy Weather the Faithful Pet Carries an Umbrella to Alice.

WARE, Mass., Nov. 27.—Prince, a curly brown water spaniel, whose principal charge is the care of six-year-old Alice Neville, is the pride of Ware. The daily romps of the spaniel and child were interrupted by the sending of Alice to school this fall. At first the faithful animal would wait outside the building throughout the sessions. Of a sudden he disappeared as soon as Alice entered the building. He busied himself with canine pastimes, but never failed to appear at the close of school.

How the dog keeps track of the time is a mystery, but he appears in front of the school at full canter and begins to bark vigorously punctually five minutes before the end of the morning and afternoon sessions. If the weather is stormy he will carry an umbrella to Alice. He can be depended upon to execute orders at the butcher's, and has a two-quart pail which he will fill with coal from the bin in the cellar and bring to the kitchen as long as there is any one to empty the pail. When Prince wishes to enter the house he places his paw on the button and rings the bell.

James Neville, who is the owner of a saloon, has trained the spaniel to carry a small tray containing glasses to a table at which customers are seated. Prince waits for the money, and if there is change returns it to the customer. He disdains a tip Mr. Neville says that when the dog is able to distinguish between beer and ale he will discharge one of his bartenders.

Prince is an all-around hunter, and is a terror to evil-disposed small boys who have a penchant for annoying little girls. The owner of Prince has been offered a big sum for the wonderful spaniel, which, he says, is a member of his family and consequently not for sale.

Two portraits of the beautiful Countess of Westmoreland and one of the Earl her husband. Gifts of jewels valued at $1,000,000 from an American, raised them to separate but it is now said that King Edward has effected a reconciliation.

SHE MIXES UP 3 PAIRS OF TWINS IN REVENGE

This Spiteful Act Causes the Death of the Poor Deluded Mothers of the Children.

HOHENWALD, Tenn., Nov. 27.—There is a unique family living out on a great farm northeast of Shubert, in this county—a family that deserves more than a passing notice.

Ninety years ago, in Posen, Germany, Frau Hertha Musselman, was delivered of triplets, three fine, bouncing boys, strong and healthy, who grew up and ripened into manhood, pursued the even tenor of their existence through middle age and are easily and joyfully wending their way down life's decline without ever having experienced a day's sickness, or any accident resulting in the breaking of a bone or other serious injury.

When the three boys were ten years of age their parents immigrated to this country and settled near Pepperton, on a small tract of land, and here, on the day that the young men, Jacob, Karl and Paul, were eighteen years of age, they were married to three sisters, Anna, Maria and Gertrude Lamm, daughters of a farmer whose land adjoined that of Mr. Musselman, and all three married couples went to live in the same house, a large building that was once upon a time used as a wayside hotel and stood on the highway three miles from Pepperton. Within a few weeks of two years later, and with only two days intervening between the first and last birth, the three young Musselman women all presented their respective husbands with a pair of twin boys apiece, six little boy babies that all looked as little alike as did their fathers, the Musselman triplets, and all of whom looked so much like their fathers and uncles as it is possible for children to do.

The young mothers were immediately filled with anxiety lest the children should in some manner become mixed so that it would be impossible to tell them one from another again, but, instead of marking them with ink, so that no mistake would be possible, depended upon marks affixed to the children's clothing, and, one night a vicious nurse who had been notified that she would have to leave the house on the following day, went silently and swiftly from room to room and, gathering the six babies all together in one place, she stripped them of every vestige of clothing, burned the garments and then went away, leaving any amount of trouble behind.

And so they have lived ever since and live today. The triplets did not marry again and none of the six twins ever married, but for the last sixty years they have continuously made their home on the farm where they now live, except that they have traveled considerably in foreign lands and in the most interesting portions of their own country.

The fathers at the age of ninety years and the sons at seventy now all look almost exactly alike, all being entirely bald, with long, white, full beards flowing down their breasts, and inasmuch as the fathers are somewhat more rugged in health than the sons, there is now scarcely the least difference in their appearance as to age and only a close observer can tell whether he is looking at one of the three fathers or one of the six sons, and no man can tell the sons or the fathers apart. They are progressive, happy, charitable, literary people, a blessing to the community in which they live, and in the perfect accord of their common lives, they are a model for all mankind of a cheerful, affectionate family.

It was a terrible shock to the three mothers. They were wholly unable to form the least idea as to the identity of the children. There was not a single mark of any kind which one could be told from the others. To every one of the mothers it was almost as though her twin boys had died and so great was their grief, coming suddenly upon them when their physical condition was such that they were fully prepared to bear up under it, that they all went into a rapid decline, and within a month from the time the babies were changed the three women had died and the three triplets were left alone with the six mixed twins unable to say which one was the father of what two children.

They solved the problem in the cool, calm manner that has been characteristic of every act in life and decided that, inasmuch as they could not tell the children apart they would keep them together as long as they could and they therefore set up housekeeping in common, making no difference in the children and soon coming to feel none, and not to care to learn their identity.

HELLO GIRLS OF U. S. BEST PAID IN WORLD

Intelligence Is Required to Be a Successful Operator of the Telephone Switchboard.

The telephone girl has become a fixture in the life of most nations. Wherever manual switchboards are in operation, the young lady who sits by the multiple unit and ceaselessly plugs in and cuts off connections during an eight-hour day, has become one of the best known types of the working woman. Everywhere, considering the protected character of her work and the favorable physical conditions, she is well compensated, receiving, of course, the best average stipend in this country, where it has been for many years the policy of the companies to attract to the service a superior order of young women, but even in the less progressive European countries, as a rule, she is remarkably well rewarded, as compared with workers in other lines. Managers in all countries have discovered that a good order of intelligence is necessary to keep up the standard of operation and that payment must be made accordingly.

The bright American girl who learns to do prompt, efficient and accurate work at the switchboard is generally better off than the woman operator in foreign countries. A beginner in one of the larger cities of this country receives ordinarily a small salary even as a learner, and once she has been taken on as a regular operator she starts at a minimum of about $5 a week, rising by quick steps of promotion to a maximum of $9 or $10, which equals the salary of the average school teacher. Becoming supervisor and chief operator she will continue to advance in income. Promotions in this country are said to be much more rapid than abroad, a natural result of the present remarkable expansion of the telephone industry.

On the other side the scale averages lower, despite the undoubted fact that the cost of decent living in the cities of Great Britain and of Continental Europe is in reality almost if not quite as great as in this country. In London the scale of weekly salaries for switchboard operators range from $2.68 up to what is called an "efficiency bar" at $4.87, passing which the operator may finally receive a salary of $6.33. As an example of the standard compensation in the British provincial cities, it is stated that at the outset a young woman will receive $2.44 a week, rising by slow degrees to $5.82. In the municipal system of Glasgow, which has lately been sold out on account of the failure of the city to "Keeping money in circulation that one has done nothing to earn is no virtue. It is right and necessary for those who earn the money to have it, and to keep it in circulation and to spend it as they see fit."

THE APPEAL TO MORAN. The appeal of Chairman, Josiah Quincy of the Massachusetts Democratic State committee to District Attorney Moran not to be a candidate for the nomination for governor for fear he be elected would almost move a stone to tears. Why not let Mr. Bryan decide between Douglas and Moran for the peace of party, he pleads. Why not, indeed? There is apparently only one reason Moran will not arbitrate. He will be a candidate for governor in November, "all rumors and statements from whatever quarter to the contrary notwithstanding." That may mean that if he does not win he will bolt. It certainly does not promise Democratic harmony.—New York World.

Stokes, the former tenement-house worker who married the millionaire socialist. Miss Morosini recently described her gowns and sought to justify the great expenditure for them by saying that it put money in circulation. Mrs. Stokes said:

"It is because such women as Miss Morosini never think what things cost and that women of the working class are compelled to think constantly of what things cost that the rude awakening is bound to come to all of us some day, perhaps at greater cost than we can afford."

Women thus wasteful and extravagant are not, as they do not deserve to be, happy. Women having barely enough clothing to keep them in at least a semblance of self-respect are make it pay, the weekly stipend of operators ranges from $1.46 to $5.11, a figure considerably below that offered by private enterprise as represented in Great Britain by the National Telephone company.

On the continent of Europe it is somewhat surprising to find that the compensation of telephone operators, although the cost of living is generally believed to be somewhat less than in Great Britain, is generally no lower, and in some cases actually higher. An average scale is that followed in the State-owned lines of Switzerland, where the daughters of hardy mountaineers start in at $4.45 a week, ending with $7.60. In Germany the telephone exchanges are, for the most part, combined with telegraph bureaus, or in the smaller cities with the local telegraph bureau and the postoffice, and the switchboard operators come under the same classification as the telegraph operators. After an apprenticeship they begin to receive a daily allowance of seventy-one cents. The highest which they may receive in Berlin and some of the larger cities, after nine years of service, is $9.35. The minimum in the Russian centers of population, where living is very expensive, is $4.46; the maximum, $8.91. Belgium is a country in which continental wage conditions are fairly normal. The Flemish or Walloon girl has at the outset as a learner a stipend of $2.23, which is gradually increased to $2.59, after which she becomes an assistant operator at $2.87, rising ultimately to $3.27.

In other parts of the world about the same average of compensation appears to prevail. Thus, in such cities as Wellington and Auckland, in New Zealand, where American-made telephone apparatus has caused a moderately good telephonic development, switchboard operators receive from $3.75 to $7.49. In the neighboring island of Tasmania, from $3.16 to $7.87. Among the lowest salaries anywhere received by the efficient young women at central are in Ceylon, where the maximum is $3.74, and in the Straits Settlements, where, out of a total of fourteen operators, one receives compensation at the rate of $2.39, and the other thirteen at $2.08. Study of the scale of rewards gained by these faithful workers in various parts of the globe should certainly have the effect of making the American operator appreciate the fact that the opportunities in this country are better than anywhere else.

CITRUS WASHING POWDER Lightens your Labor and Lengthens your Life

An Exhibition of Wanton Malice.

The attacks made upon William J. Dingee for giving Mayor Schmitz a friendly welcome when the latter landed in New York on his return from Europe were entirely uncalled for. Seldom has the public press indulged in abuse more brutal and unwarranted. It seems that even the accused Mayor's personal friends cannot display a kindly interest in his welfare without subjecting themselves to coarse denunciation teeming with false insinuation and malicious innuendo.

Mr. Dingee's relations with Mayor Schmitz are neither political nor financial, but purely social and friendly. He has not the remotest connection with the Ruef political machine in San Francisco and has no interest whatever in the franchises, the granting of which has been the subject of so much criticism. The office to which Mr. Dingee was appointed, that of Park Commissioner, purely as a matter of compliment, carries with it neither emolument nor patronage. In that office Mr. Dingee has gratuitously given the city the benefit of a keen intelligence, a sound business judgment and an intense love of flowers and the beauties of nature. The breath of scandal has never touched the park board, and no one has ventured to criticize the management of park affairs.

Loyalty to friendship is counted the finest thing in human nature next to love of parents and wife. It is the basis and fundamental principle of all the fraternal orders. Why should a manifestation of it in this particular instance be pointed to as a proof of sympathy with political corruption on one hand and of culpability on the other? There is not one of Mr. Dingee's critics who, if he stood in the shoes of Eugene E. Schmitz, would not be proud and happy if a man like William J. Dingee were to take his hand as a friend before the whole world and assure him of unbroken faith in his integrity. It is possible that Mr. Dingee may be mistaken in his estimate of Mayor Schmitz's character, but it is not possible to mistake the sincerity of his attachment. The moral courage he displayed may be misjudged, but it exhibits a fine grain in human nature and is proof that there are still men who can remain unselfishly devoted to the ties of friendship in the face of public obloquy and popular denunciation. Any of us, however unworthy, would rejoice in the possession of a friend whose loyalty cannot be shaken by calumny or evil fortune.

Moreover, Mayor Schmitz has not been proven guilty of the charges brought against him. He has yet to have his day in court and an opportunity to establish his innocence. He has an inalienable right to a fair trial before an unprejudiced tribunal; and it must be admitted that the ex parte testimony offered against him has been given under pressure by the scum of society, and that it is not in itself of a nature to command credence. But whatever the facts of the case may be, it is to be hoped that they will be made clear and the truth vindicated. In any event it is unjust and wholly at variance with the spirit of fair play to demand that the official head of a great city be treated as a convicted criminal and an outcast before he has had an opportunity to face his accusers and rebut their charges. The law presumes every man to be innocent till his guilt has been conclusively established by judicial examination.

But aside from all this, the attacks on Mr. Dingee for showing friendship for Mayor Schmitz in the hour of trial are as destitute of candor as they are of fairness. Behind them plainly are discernible political motives and personal spites. The political enemies of Schmitz are trying to make out that Dingee's show of friendship is a proof that the Mayor is an enemy of workingmen. The personal enemies of Dingee point to it as an evidence of the latter's moral turpitude. These naturally drag in irrelevant matters and display their animus by sneers and insinuations as devoid of truth and generosity as the general tenor of their comments is brutal and malignant. If Mr. Dingee had denied his friend in the hour of trial the persons who are denouncing him now would probably have accused him of being faithless and ungrateful. Schmitz would have been taunted with having associated with a millionaire who forsook him the moment trouble came. The tongue of malice and envy is never wanting for a pretext to loose its slander.

A Democratic paper boasts that Minnesota went Democratic at the recent election. It did nothing of the kind. It merely went Scandinavian on the head of the ticket, and Republican for the rest.

"It begins to look as though the day of reckoning for the Standard Oil Company had come," says the Salt Lake News. There has been a day of reckoning for the Standard Oil Company ever time a dividend was declared. It is high time there was a reckoning of some other kind.

A queer statement comes from the Philippines to the effect that the prisoners inoculated with cholera virus died, but that Governor General Smith had exonerated the surgeon who administered it. We are not disposed to condemn without fuller knowledge, but it is extraordinary that prisoners should be inoculated with cholera virus. Was the inoculation with or without the consent of its victims? The dispatch says the virus was impure, hence caused death. There is something strange and abhorrent about the affair that calls for a cleaning up. Are prisoners in Philippine jails used as subjects for medical experimentation? If so, by what authority?

The amicable adjustment of the dispute between the Union Belt Line Company and the Southern Pacific is a matter for public congratulation. Oakland needs a belt line around the harbor basin that will afford transportation conveniences to the manufactories located there, without discrimination. A prolonged dispute would probably have delayed matters and retarded the development of that section of the water front. The agreement reached by the contending parties gives the Southern Pacific the right to build its spur track, with the proviso that the cars of other railroads can be run upon it. The Belt Line Company will get a franchise from the termination of the Southern Pacific's track along the north-eastern shore of the basin. By this arrangement all interests are harmonized, and the speedy construction of a belt line insured.

Secretary Root's Plea for Peace.

Secretary Root's eloquent plea for peace and good will among the nations has met with many encomiums, but will it have an enduring effect? Such pleas were made before the Lord made His covenant with Jacob, but the edge of the sword is still wet with blood, and the weak are still protesting against the aggressions of the strong. Said the Secretary, "the true and final antidote for war is the love of justice and peace among the people who make war or preserve peace."

And President Roosevelt says, "the surest guarantee of peace is being prepared for war." "Speak softly, but carry a big stick" is another of his maxims. Evidently, the President places little reliance in the love of justice and peace among the people who make war or preserve peace. His main dependence for peace is ability and readiness to fight. In other words, a good punch is a safer protection than justice and kindness.

Nearly two thousand years ago an appeal for universal peace was made by One greater than Secretary Root, One far more entitled to reverence and obedience than the minister of any potentate or republic. He said: "As ye would that others should do unto you, do ye even so unto them." His coming was hailed as a message from on high of peace and good will among men. Have His followers kept the peace among themselves or observed the law of justice and kindness in dealing with others? Nineteen centuries after the delivery of the divine message enjoining peace and brotherly love between all mankind the armaments of the world are larger and the implements of death more numerous than ever before. Is the love of justice and peace making much progress?

The maxims and practices of war evidence small dependence in respect for justice or love of peace; still less in divine control over the result of battle. Israel fell upon their enemies when they were newly circumcised and unsuspecting. "Providence fights with the heaviest battalions," said Napoleon. "Pray for heaven's assistance, but keep your powder dry," said old Putnam. Stonewall Jackson prayed devoutly before going into battle, but he made a point to strike his foes in the rear or surprise them in their tents. "Gott mit us," was the war cry of the Swedes under Gustavus Adolphus, but they never relaxed their discipline or the care of their arms. Christianity is a paradox with its gospel of peace and its penchant for war. Its lessons of love and mercy, truth and justice contrast strangely with the deeds of Christian armies and the policy of Christian nations.

If Mr. Root can succeed where Christ failed in persuading the nations of the earth to be just in their dealings with each other, he will deserve to be hailed as a prophet and a benefactor. But will he succeed? We are skeptical. It is not likely that a single battalion will be disbanded because of what he has said. The dogs of war may not be loosed, but they will be kept ready to fly at intruders or at others who object to intrusion. While the world talks of arbitration and Carnegie builds his Temple of Peace the world goes on filling its arsenals with improved arms and drilling more soldiers. Mr. Root's words are fine, but they don't stop warlike preparations, more's the pity. What a jolly lot of humbugs we Christians are!

The public will welcome the news that active steps are to be taken to build a hall for the Young Men's Christian Association. Since the sale of the Y. M. C. A. building on Clay street the association has been without a home. It has been occupying narrow rented quarters unsuited for its uses and wholly inadequate to the needs of the association. This city stands in great need of a hall of suitable dimensions adequately equipped for the work of the Y. M. C. A., and there should be no further delay in erecting one than is absolutely necessary.

AN ANTI-TYPHOID REMEDY.

An expert writes to the Washington Post as follows: "That cold tea will destroy the germs of typhoid fever is the very latest discovery of medical science. While carrying out a series of experiments to ascertain whether the micrococcus melitensis, which is supposed to be the cause of Malta fever, would survive in milk when added to tea, Major J. G. McNaught of the Royal army medical corps recently made an investigation into the action of cold tea upon the bacillus typhosus, the germ which causes typhoid fever. The results of his experiments showed that in five hours the micrococcus melitensis was completely destroyed, and in the case of the bacillus typhosus, contact with the cold tea for four hours greatly diminished the number of the bacilli, and at the expiration of twenty hours none of the bacilli could be recovered from the tea."

He considers the experiment of very great interest with reference to the question of the use of cold tea as a substitute for water in the soldiers' canteens as a safeguard against typhoid infection. When it is remembered that the Chinese, who habitually use cold tea as a beverage in place of water, are almost immune from this dread disease, which destroys so many Americans and Europeans, may we not reasonably suppose, in view of the experiments above mentioned, that the drinking of tea in place of water may have the effect of destroying the germs, thus making them immune to the disease?

Ladies' Latest Winter Suits

The sudden falling of the thermometer was all that was necessary to bring the tailored suit of warmer fabric to the foreground. The wool mixtures, the chevots, the plaids, and the broadcloth suits have been steadily arriving for the past two months, and a more satisfactory display you could not wish to find.

The growth of this department is due solely to merit—and the merit of this season's offering is already recognized to such an extent that we wish we had twice the space in which to show them. However, this paucity of room hinders to your benefit, for in order to prevent overcrowding, we are making unusually generous prices. $15.00, $17.50, $22.50 and to $45.00.

CRAVENETTE—the kind you feel safe in—no matter if you are overtaken by a shower—are priced $9.50, $13.50, $15.00 and to $30.00.

Furs of All Qualities

BUT EACH PRICED SO AS TO GIVE A GENEROUS VALUE.

Did you ever see such popularity as is accorded Furs this winter? It makes one doubt all the talk about the scarcity of fur-bearing animals, and yet prices—at least in our store—are no higher. This is due to our system of buying. We get in the market early; we pay spot cash, commanding the best price; and we have a staple profit which we do not increase simply because the article may be in greater demand than usual.

Among the most scarce of furs is the genuine Siberian Mink, and within the past few days we have received two special shipments of them. Nothing more stylish than real mink neck pieces and shoulder capes. Prices $15.00, $23.50 and many grades up to $150.00.

A useful variety of fur pieces in Fox, Wolf, Bear, Oppossum, Squirrel and other warm furs—at $1.25, $1.75, $2.50, $4.50 and all grades up to $95.

Winter Dress Goods

If it's for outdoor garments, or for evening or party gowns and coats, just come to this department—the right fabric is here.

ALL MEN

According to a Biblical authority, as it is, but the statistics show that probably the worst offender in the coffee advertisement tells us that seven million bags of Brazilian Java coffee are imported to this country every year. The life in that statement is in understatement. The quantity, which should be at least three times as great, there is certainly a lot of poor coffee dumped into the market. It hasn't the right twang to it. When I want a good cup of coffee (the recipe is something more than hot water and a brown taste) I go to Lehnhardt's. Lehnhardt's Mocha Arabica is delicious. NOTHING BETTER THESE COLD NIGHTS.

THUGS REFUSE TO PAY FARE

Nevada Bandit Points Revolver at Train Conductor but Relents.

RENO, Nov. 27.—Two men, who were afterwards arrested for attempted hold-ups and who gave the names of William Keating and William Dool, refused to pay their fare on Train No. 1 last evening. Conductor Linquist insisted on payment, and one of the men drew a gun, which he held out in his pocket. But when they paid the fare and went to Reno.

A LADY OF RARE ABILITY

ADA LEE DELMAR
PSYCHIC PALMIST
and Clairvoyant Life Reader

PALMISTRY AND CLAIRVOYANCE

Palmistry is an ancient recognized science. Your life and all that the years hold is plainly written in your hand. The scientific palmist reveals to you your character, capabilities, virtues and faults, state of your health, length of your life, what vocation you would best succeed in, etc., etc. Clairvoyance is one of the rarest gifts of nature, the learned and honest who have taken the trouble to investigate, are willing to admit that there are some people gifted with clairvoyant foresight, whose reflex vision enables them to cast shadows of coming events and focalize them upon the mind.

Half the mistakes in life arise from not knowing how to act in harmony with coming events. To be forewarned by the science of palmistry and endowed with clairvoyant foresight solves the problem and puts you on the right track. Thousands testify to this fact. Success in business, family affairs, matters of the heart, or in the social world can be obtained if only the right means are used. Troubles, mistakes, accidents and failures, sickness and death can be avoided if you are forewarned and act in time. No troubles are so great, no matter what they relate to, but what can be helped and actually overcome. Miss Delmar, one of the greatest living psychic palmists and clairvoyants, will actually reveal your entire life, and tell you what the future holds for you. Come and see. "Take advantage of this opportunity." Learn who your friends and enemies are. Know what you have to meet, the dangers that are before you, and control them. By a change of attitude you may alter your entire fate.

COUNTERFEITS AND GENUINE.

We all know that there are genuine as well as counterfeit dollars, good doctors and bad ones, honest lawyers and dishonest ones. Just so with clairvoyants. There are some genuine and some imitations. Judge her by her work. Miss Delmar's motto is "Work and Win." She helps her patrons in attaining their various ambitions. This is why she has so many of them, and why they recommend her to their friends.

It makes no difference what position you occupy in life, you will be treated with the same courtesy, respect and confidence that has made this gifted young woman the most famous clairvoyant living.

Ladies and gentlemen can visit Miss Delmar without fear of being treated with confidence betrayed. She has thousands of written testimonials from men and women from all parts of the country, but she never publishes a name of any of her patrons, as she considers her business a sacred trust.

EXTRA LOW FEE.

As a matter of advertisement for a short time she has reduced her charges to 50 cents for ladies; $1 for men. Hours of consultation daily from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Wednesday and Saturday evenings, 7 to 9 p. m. Sundays, 1 to 4 p. m.

HANDSOME CAFE LATELY REMODELLED

SADDLE ROCK—NOW ONE OF THE FINEST ON PACIFIC COAST.

One of the most gratifying features to Oaklanders in today's life around the bay is the increasing number of San Francisco people who come over here to patronize our high-class restaurants. Ever before, the great disaster which so completely ruined things around, Oakland has begun to enjoy the reputation of catering to the tastes of those who wanted only the best and wanted it served under the best conditions. Mr. F. Kisch was the first Oakland restaurateur to appreciate the fact that nothing was too good for Oakland in the way of restaurants.

Just about a year ago the handsome Saddle Rock Cafe was opened by Mr. Kisch, and at once became popular. The proprietor proceeded along some radical and progressive lines. He secured the best chef to be found in this part of the country, and was consequently no object so long as the cuisine and service were of the best. After the earthquake the Saddle Rock was the only first-class restaurant remaining around San Francisco. From employing twenty-five men, Mr. Kisch was forced to employ seventy men, and he earned the reputation of catering to the big crowds that swamped his restaurant every hour in a manner that has never been surpassed even in old San Francisco.

During the past month the interior of the Saddle Rock Cafe has been most handsomely decorated. This rich work is superior to anything yet seen in any California city. The general design of the ceiling, with its heavy beams, tends toward the Oriental idea, there being a very lavish use of gold in the decorative scheme. The walls are paneled with that semi-tropical foliage which we enjoy in this part of California, and the artists have not made the common mistake of crowding too much into too little space. The entire decorative scheme is highly artistic and bears some comparison to the reception rooms of some of California's millionaires' luxurious mansions.

All the way from England has come a magnificent lot of originally patterned crockery, bearing the monogram of Mr. Kisch's cafe. The very finest all-ware that can be produced in American factories has also been acquired and which adds to the attractiveness of this popular place.

On Thanksgiving evening Mr. Kisch has arranged for a grand table d'hôte dinner. The menu will be one of the most appetizing ever served in Oakland. A special stringed orchestra will supply pleasing music from 6 o'clock till midnight, and dinner will be served from six to nine p. m. Reservations for tables for this Thanksgiving reception dinner can be made at any time, the price per plate being one dollar and a half.

Another valuable addition to the Saddle Rock organization, of one which is not seen by the guests, is the installation of the most modern hygienic sanitary dish washing machine. This machine sterilizes every dish that passes through it, and is built in accordance with the very modern ideas of sanitation and cleanliness. The wine and liquor list has been greatly improved, the very best of imported and American wines being always on hand. Mr. Kisch is also a direct importer of the celebrated Wiesberger, while the celebrated domestic beverage, Anheuser-Busch is always in cold storage ready for immediate service.

"It is very gratifying to me, and indeed to all business men of this city," said Mr. Kisch yesterday, "to notice how permanently the San Francisco people seem to have mingled with our own. While I have nothing but good wishes for San Francisco, my observation compels me to remark that the people who come from across the bay seem much more inclined to stay here than to leave us. A first-class cafe is perhaps one of the best places in which to watch the coming and going of new people. As new faces every day, and many of them have made Oakland their permanent home. They all admit that today we offer more attractions in the way of restaurants and places of amusement than can be found in San Francisco. When our new hotels are ready for occupancy, there will not be a thing left to be desired in Oakland, because before that time, I take it for granted, that we shall have acquired the public parks to be voted upon in a few weeks."

PICK OUT YOUR FAVORITE IN THE PRIZE CONTEST Many Votes Are Polled and the Standings of Candidates Will Be Published in the Tribune Thursday.

Everybody interested in "contest doing" is eagerly watching for the first standings of the candidates to be published in Thursday's issue. That the whole county is awakening to this great opportunity offered them by THE TRIBUNE is manifest by the inquiries as to the nature of the contest, and the fact that even those who have not yet voted more than others the last day, that is, no reason others have not as good a chance for your vote as the candidate of votes that a six-month subscription paid in advance is good for 200 votes.

There is a great deal to be gained in a contest, both in money and in experience, not taking into consideration the valuable prize one might win. Enter your name and your friends will do the rest. If you do not go to some of your friends and ask for their votes on condition that you enter them if you find a few would be interested in your winning. Don't delay a minute, but try and enter a few votes with your name by Thursday. Now is the best time to get subscriptions or promises which will be fulfilled later on.

Make up your mind right now that you are going to be one of the lucky ones and strive to attain that end. Do not wait until the last week, but start out now and not only get votes from your friends, but induce them to have others save their votes for you also.

There are a number of contestants in the field and only and more are expected to enter within a few days as before stated, the contest is open to everyone and it may be possible that the winners will be chosen from among those who have entered and who have assisted that one in securing one of the valuable prizes.

All candidates are requested to send in their addresses and call at the business office of THE TRIBUNE to obtain blanks needed by contestants.

MANNER OF VOTING.
A coupon good for one vote will be published in each issue of THE TRIBUNE until the end of the contest. This coupon, if clipped and sent to the Contest Manager of THE TRIBUNE, will count as one vote for the contestant named therein.

There is also another way of securing votes and that is on subscriptions. Votes will be given on all paid-in-advance subscriptions as follows:

One month, 50c. 25 extra votes
Three months, $1.50. 100 extra votes
Six months, $3.50. 300 extra votes
One year, $7.50. 1000 extra votes

As these subscriptions are handed in, certificates will be issued good for the number of votes called for in the above schedule.

The name of the candidate to be voted for must be written on the certificate when issued and is non-transferable, but if the party to whom it is issued so desires, the certificate need not be voted at the time of issuance, but may be withheld until the last day of the contest. The votes published in the paper, however, must be voted within ten days.

If you do not fully understand about this, or if you wish information about the best way to go about it to win, call at the TRIBUNE office or write to Contest Manager, care TRIBUNE.

GRACE BROWN WAS CLUBBED

Evidence in Murder Trial Shows Girl Was Beaten Before Drowning.

BERKELEY, N. Y., Nov. 27.—With interest heightened by the declaration of medical experts that Grace Brown was clubbed before she fell into the waters of Big Moose lake, there was a larger crowd than ever at the Gillette murder trial today. More than a thousand persons were turned away and those who got seats were on hand as early as 7 o'clock to secure them. The prosecution cannot complete its case before Thanksgiving the case will not go to the jury before Wednesday of next week.

TILLMAN WILL BE PROTECTED

Mayor Dunne Details Detectives—While Negro's Seek Lawyers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Mayor Dunne today announced that he would detail a number of policemen in plain clothes to mingle with the throng at the lecture of Senator Tillman tonight and see that no violence or insult was offered the Senator.

Among the number were several negro policemen who were selected because of their acquaintance with the negro population of Chicago.

A number of negroes today sought the advice of lawyers regarding the procuring of an injunction restraining the Senator from delivering his lecture. They were informed that the chances were against it, and even though it was successful, it would not fail to have the ultimate effect of embittering racial feelings.

The project was abandoned.

CHARMING ENTERTAINMENT IS GIVEN FOR MRS. ALEX ALLEN GOSSIP OF ENGAGEMENTS AND THE BRIDES-ELECT SMART SET GIVE MANY INFORMAL HOME FUNCTIONS

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

Will be Given at the Home Club
This Evening—Many are Invited.

Miss Chrissie Taft entertained this afternoon for Mrs. Alexander Allen at an informal luncheon given at the Claremont Country club.

This is the first of a series of affairs to be given during the winter for Mrs. Allen, who has recently come from the East, the bride of the Rev. Alexander Allen, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

The table decorations were entirely in pink, and covers were laid for Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Frederick Stratton, Mrs. Newton Koser, Mrs. James Allen, Miss Ransom, Miss Bridges, Mrs. George S. Wheaton, Mrs. Edson Adams, Mrs. Max Taft, Miss Sevilla Hayden, Mrs. A. Lowndes Scott, Mrs. Richards, Miss Florine Brown, Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts, Mrs. Harry East Miller, Mrs. Harrison Clay, Mrs. J. Loran Pease, Mrs. A. S. Larkey, Miss Amy McKee, Mrs. George McNear Jr., Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald, Mrs. Vernon Waldron, Mrs. Sam Breck, Mrs. Edward Brayton, Mrs. Allen Babcock.

DANCING PARTY.

The initial dance last evening of the Berkeley Assembly took place in Wilkins hall on Haste street in the college town. The patronesses for the winter season are Mrs. E. J. Clapp, Mrs. A. A. Penoyer, Mrs. Wilfred Page, Mrs. A. J. Ralston, Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Mrs. Charles Greenleaf, Mrs. Henry Glass, Mrs. Charles Gayley, Mrs. Clinton Day, Mrs. E. J. Wickson, Mrs. Charles Butters, Miss Sydney Smith and Miss Ralston.

THANKSGIVING BALL.

Invitations have been out for two weeks past to the third annual ball to be given by Prof. J. S. McKown, at Central hall, 419 Twelfth street, on Thanksgiving eve. The hall has been tastefully and beautifully decorated for the occasion, and dancing will be enjoyed until a late hour. At 11 o'clock a bounteous Thanksgiving supper will be served, and much Thanksgiving cheer will be in evidence throughout the evening. The invitation list is very large, and the affair promises to be one of the most successful that Prof. McKown has yet given.

Those in charge of the affair are Prof. McKown, P. S. Smith, C. E. Powell, Oscar Peterson and Mr. Eptograph.

DINNER GUESTS.

Miss Ruth Kales was hostess Saturday evening at a delightful dinner given for Miss Lucretia Burnham, whose marriage with Charles D. Bates Jr. will take place this week.

The table decorations were chrysanthemums and bridesmaid roses with ferns and pink tulle.

Covers were laid for Miss Burnham, Charles Bates, Mr. and Mrs. John Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Belden, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Oliver, Miss Anita Oliver, Miss Carolyn Oliver, Miss Elsie Everson, Miss Rose Kales, George Jensen, Willard Barton, Roy Summers, Frank Kales, Tom Knowles and Miss Kales.

Miss Kales is to attend Miss Burnham on Wednesday evening as maid of honor. This is the last affair at which this popular young bride will be entertained before her marriage.

SOPHOMORE JINKS.

The sophomores of the Fruitvale High school were very successful in presenting their sophomore jinks. The event took place at the Dewey assembly hall, November 28, before a large audience. The program consisted of the following excellent program:

RUNNING SORES COVERED LIMBS

Little Girl's Obstinate Case of Eczema—Instantaneous Relief By Cuticura—Little Boy's Hands and Arms Also Were a Mass of Torturing Sores—Grateful Mother Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES A HOUSEHOLD STANDBY"

"In reply to your letter I write you my experience, and you are privileged to use it, as you see fit. Last year, after having my little girl treated by a very prominent physician for an obstinate case of eczema, I resorted to the Cuticura Remedies, and was so well pleased with the almost instantaneous relief afforded, that I discarded the physician's prescription and relied entirely on the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills. When we commenced with the Cuticura Remedies her feet and limbs were covered with running sores. In about six weeks we had her completely well, and there has been no recurrence of the trouble.

"In July of this year a little boy in our family poisoned his hands and arms with poison oak, and in twenty-four hours his hands and arms were a mass of torturing sores. We used only the Cuticura Remedies, washing his hands and arms with the Cuticura Soap, and anointed them with the Cuticura Ointment, and then gave him the Cuticura Resolvent. In about three weeks his hands and arms healed up, so we have lots of cause for feeling grateful for the Cuticura Remedies. We find that the Cuticura Remedies are a valuable household standby, living as we do twelve miles from a doctor, and where it costs from twenty to twenty-five dollars to come up on the mountain.

FERNANDO NELSON AT THE WHEEL OF HIS COLUMBIA, RALPH McLEOD THE DIAMOND TIRE MAN, AT HIS SIDE; ED HIMMELWRIGHT AND AL HALL, THE TWO CRACK DRIVERS, IN REAR.

MOVING PICTURES SHOW EXCITING CHANGE AT SAN LOUIS OBISPO

With the recent phenomenal record run from San Francisco to Los Angeles of Fernando Nelson's Columbia still matter of much discussion among automobilists about the bay, a series of moving pictures depict one stage of the endurance test to the south, are the feature of this week's bill at the Bell vaudeville house. Gus Cohen, proprietor and manager of the theater, has been fortunate enough to secure the pictures for a week, and yesterday at their opening they made a tremendous hit. Motorists, as well as those not directly interested in the sport, who have seen the pictures, declare them a novel and great treat.

The pictures were taken by Miles Bros., of San Francisco and New York, at San Luis Obispo, where the changing of crews took place. They are exceptionally clear and give a vivid idea of the thoroughness and promptness in which things are done on this record trip.

As the pictures are first flashed on the white screen they show the condition of the country and then portray a long stretch of road. Another picture, and a speak of dust seen in the distance, nearly two miles off, announces the approach of the record breakers. The machine is traveling along the highway at railroad train pace, swaying and bounding under the terrific speed, and finally comes to a halt at the end of the first half of the journey, San Luis Obispo. Al Hall and Ed Himmelwright alight from the car, which in a few minutes will be on the way to Los Angeles in charge of Bert Saunders and Clarence Diehl. Nelson and Ralph McLeod, of the Diamond Rubber Co., are having a bite to eat and some coffee. After somewhat satisfying the inner man, Nelson gives orders and is seen hurrying the boys along. McLeod cools the tires off by pouring water on them. Saunders, with a hatchet is opening the gasoline can. Diehl is filling the radiator with water, while Hall examines the engine and oils it. All is attended to without a hitch.

Then everything is in readiness for the continuance of the run. Hand-shaking is in order, and as the car is sent away Hall gives a few yards on the running board riding final orders and words of encouragement and wishing them good luck. "They're off," the throttle is opened wide and the machine leaps ahead as if aware it was to establish a wonderful record.

THE TRIBUNE'S DOUBLE PAGE

NATIVE SON IS WINNER OF FEATURE

LEADS TONY FAUST FROM START IN FIFTH EVENT.

Shady Lad, at 12 to 1, puts a Crimp in Rolls of the Bookies.

YESTERDAY'S WINNERS.
 * Horse. Jockey Best price.
 * Atkins. Knapp. 8-5
 * E. M. Brattain. 15-1
 * Shady Lad. 12-1
 * Mansard. McIntyre. 3-1
 * Native Son. W. Dugan. 1-1
 * Inflammable. Knapp. 3-1

The first day's program of Thanksgiving week racing was featureless, but this did not deter the faithful from making their daily pilgrimage to Williams' Park. Relief from an overplus of selling races on the card was found in the fifth, a condition affair for 2-year-olds over the five and a half furlong route. In this race Barney Schreiber and Harry Stover were represented by two sterling youngsters, Tony Faust and Native Son. The recent indecisive victory of the Missouri bred colt over the home product enhanced interest into today's contest.

FIRST RACE.
 Jockey Willie Knapp partially redeemed himself by landing his first mount of the day a winner, when he rode T. Proctor's Atkins, always favorite to victory in the mile selling affair for 2-year-olds. Opening at even money, the colt receded to 11 to 10, but a shower of wise money sent his price back to even again. The winner justified the confidence reposed in him by going to the front and winning after a hard drive through the stretch. Gov. Davis, second choice in the betting, had pressed Atkins the last part, but could not get up, Rosario, the third choice, was third. Time, 1:12.

SECOND RACE.
 Johnnie Mullins' "array streak" E. M. Brattain, annexed the second race by defeating the well played favorite, Van Ness. The winner was easily overpowered in the betting and also ridden by E. Williams, grabbed the stable of Doc Randall, dropped into the third hole. Time, 1:14 1-5.

THIRD RACE.
 A contingent of well-bred horses went down the line and trimmed the books for several thousand dollars by putting over Shady Lad in the third race. Opening at 12 to 1, and receding to 15 to 1, a bunch of money well distributed, sent the gelding's price back to 12 to 1. At that it was a heart disease finish with Shady Lad a short head to the good. Tarsalan second and Alice Carey third. This was a six furlong sprint for the 4-year-old and worse division and every horse in the race came in for support. St. Winifride, the much touted colt, landed almost at the bottom of the list. Time, 1:14 1-5.

FOURTH RACE.
 San Ramo and Eclipse were the only absentees that sidestepped the issue in the fourth race, which left a field of ten to race the mile and a half. Between Mansard and Royal Rogue, the son of Florist was declared the winner. Royal Rogue, who was heavily played by W. H. Hammond, his owner, finished second. Phalanx, from the stable of Doc Randall, dropped into the third hole. Time, 1:14 1-5.

FIFTH RACE.
 The day's feature, a five and one-half furlong dash for 2-year-olds, resulted in an easy victory for Harry Stover's gelding, Native Son, who was heavily backed. The winner was first away and before the half pole was reached the field was strung out in the proverbial Indian file. It was only a matter of time before Stover bid to turn the tables on the Schreiber colt. Tony Faust was away poorly, but ran a creditable race. Woolma was third all the way. Time, 1:08.

SIXTH RACE.
 The long distance event, last on the card, was captured in a nose finish by Inflammable. Second place went to Lazzell with Duellist in third position. Time, 1:48 4-5.

FRUITVALES BEAT THE LICKS

Saturday afternoon in a hotly contested game the Fruitvale High school football team defeated the '06 football team of Lick 27 to 6. The Fruitvale team although outnumbered ten pounds to the man played the Lick team in every stage of the game.

The feature of the game was the trick plays of the Fruitvales which netted them many yards. The Fruitvale team challenges any team averaging 150 or 140 pounds. Following is the line-up left end, Moore; left tackle, Burns; left guard, Buchholz; center, Magee; right guard, Rhoads; right tackle, Dyberg; right end, Weimer; quarter, Nelson; left half, Burns; fullback, Haskins; right half, Harold; Jordan and Grazer, substitutes.

LIVE RACE GOSSIP BY LEE DEMIER

The high wind made racing very disagreeable, but a large crowd was in attendance. In the first race Atkins was the public choice and brought home the money in a hard drive from Governor Davis. The last named horse was probably best, but the little rider Russell was not strong enough to do him justice, but at that put up a masterful ride, being beaten by a neck. Rosario set the pace and finished third. It looked easy picking for the talent in the second race. Van Ness, a 4 to 1 favorite, looked like easy money, but E. M. Brattain outran him for the talent in the second race. Van Ness, a 4 to 1 favorite, looked like easy money, but E. M. Brattain outran him for the talent in the second race. Van Ness, a 4 to 1 favorite, looked like easy money, but E. M. Brattain outran him for the talent in the second race.

The barrier, getting his horse away first never left the result in doubt. He opened up a gap of six lengths and just cauterized it. It took a good one to beat this fellow. Tony Faust got away last, was cut off, but, getting clear sailing in the stretch, got the place in a hard drive. Woolma ran a nice race but cannot concede this weight to this kind. The entry was 4-5 in the betting. The closing race resulted in a "only and tuck" finish between Inflammable and the heavily played favorite, Lazzell. The chestnut gelding from the Hame stable came from the rear and just got up to scratch the verdict by a nose, through the tight finish put up by Jockey Knapp. Lazzell ran a good race and was awarded Shaw honors. Captain Rice's old horse is getting on edge. Time, 1:48 4-5.

The game at Williams' Park goes merrily on. The card today brings out a fast bunch of sprinters in the fourth race, the Bedlam Handicap, at the furlong, worth $200. Gypsy King, who seems about unbeatable, is handling weight to old horses, but in his present grand form should beat them. With Rosinella and Martindale fighting it out for second honors. Ruble beat head and tail last out, but may be expected to improve. In the sixth race a nice lot of 3-year-olds came together and on paper looks like any one of them might win. The speedy St. Francis will improve on his previous start and may be able to hold it out to the wire. This colt is very fast. Sir Edward is giving away weight, but was never better than at the present time. While Lisara ran a smug race, his start of a few days ago was poor. "Doc" Rowell starts his good horse Sir Francis, who is best in middle ground. J. C. Clem has won, and Marion Rose, who drove him, a small colt, Gemmell, who ran a good race, his only start here and several other 2-year-olds, so a good contest may be looked for.

Handicapper and Owner Maxie Miller arrived from the Middle West yesterday. Mr. Miller says that he will take up eight horses and campaign them at Emeryville this winter. He has two useful performers in Squire Johnson and M. M. Miller. Jockey George Bullman is a much improved rider. Horsemen should give this young rider a chance. He did some good saddle work at Denver last summer. Walter Schwartz got his Christmas money the other day when Fred Bent made good. The weekly program book for Ascot Park is out. High Wind had the call in the betting at Emeryville yesterday. Besides being a bookmaker, Henry Wendt is also a diamond butcher. Garnet Ferguson's The Mighty made his first appearance in the six-furlong dash. He ran unplaced. Millionaire W. H. Hammond flooded the ring with Royal Rogue coin to take the fourth race. His horse had to be satisfied with second money. Henry Forsman had a good bet on Native Son. The Fillmore-street contingent, headed by Zeak Abrams, went wrong on Miller's Daughter. Al Dabson's Eclipse sidestepped the issue in the six-furlong dash yesterday. The Keene brothers gathered a chunk of the shining gold when their aged gelding, Man-Longstreet, Favordale colt, and five others, was third to Longstreet, 118 pounds, and Troctor Knott, 120, in the Omnibus Stakes, one and one-half miles, Salva-tor carrying 125 pounds and finishing in front of four others; won the Jersey Handicap, one and one-quarter miles, 124 pounds, and the Champion Stakes, one and one-quarter miles, 124 pounds, beating J. A. B. and Sorrento; won a sweepstakes, one and one-sixteenth miles, and a purse, one and one-sixteenth miles. As a four-year-old he won all of his five starts. In the Suburban Handicap, one and one-quarter miles, 127 pounds, he beat probably the best field which ever started for the event, that is, Cassius, 107 pounds, second; Tenny, 126 pounds, third; Recluse, Prince Royal Longstreet, Firenze, Raceland, and others; won the match against Tenny, each carrying 122 pounds, one and one-quarter miles, and the match against Tenny, each carrying 122 pounds, one and one-quarter miles, 122 pounds; won the Montmouth Cup, one and three-quarter miles; won the Championship Stakes, one and one-half miles, beating Tenny, each carrying 122 pounds; won purse of $2500, one mile, to beat the best time on record, 1:39 4-5, carrying 110 pounds, going the distance in 1:35 4-5. Ginette, the French mare that won ten races in succession this year, will soon be installed at Billy Card's farm in Virginia. Roy A. Halsey, who brought the mare from France, has bought her back from Charles T. Henshall and will send her to John Horace E. Sir Wilfred and Computer at Card's farm. Mr. Halsey will increase his stable before racing begins next season if he can find good horses for sale. His stable now consists of the four named, but it is his aim to be well represented on the turf next season.

FAMOUS HORSES THAT HAVE WON BIG PURSES

Forchal, foaled in 1878, never raced in America, but was shipped to England when a yearling. At two years old he made his debut at the Newmarket Second October meeting in the Bedford Stakes, five furlongs, defeating Myra, Phalanx and Myrtles. Six weeks later he was second in the Ashby Sweepstakes five furlongs, to Savoyard, defeating Samuel, Lumpey and Montmorency. Newmarket Houghton meeting won the Bredley Nursery Handicap, five furlongs, defeating Heyday, the favorite, to whom he gave twenty-four pounds. Acroterite and others followed. When three years old he was second to the Derby winner Bend Or (13) in the City and Suburban Handicap, one and one-quarter miles, with Post Girl, Euterpe, Prestonsburg, Petronel and seventeen others behind him. He then crossed the channel and won the Grand Prix de Paris, defeating Triebels, Alton, Euterpe and six others. He was shipped to England and without a saddle started in the Ascot Gold Cup won by Robert the Devil. Foxhall, the only 3-year-old in the race, failed to get a place. Newmarket First October meeting won the Grand Duke Michael Stakes (handicap) two miles, two furlongs and twenty-eight yards, carrying 110 pounds, defeating Chippendale, Padlock, Petronel and others. Then the Subot Stakes, for three-year-olds, Rowley Mile, defeating Triebels and Maskelyne, Houghton meeting Foxhall (2) won the Cambridgeshire Stakes (handicap) one and one-quarter miles, carrying 125 pounds, from Lucy Chitlers (3) 92 pounds, second Tristram (3) 107 pounds, third Peter (5) 140 pounds. Bend Or (4) 154 pounds and twenty-seven others. Foxhall had won the highest weight ever carried successfully by a three-year-old in this race, and it is probable to three-year-old ever ran a better race. He won the Ascot Gold Cup as a four-year-old, and started next day in the Alexandra Plate. He was not in condition and was beaten by a long margin. He won several times, and this ended his racing career. The famous English trainer, William Bay, spoke of him as the best horse he ever knew, and John Porter, of Kingsley, trainer of Omrod, flying Fox and Terramoun, names Foxhall as one of the best horses he ever saw. Hindoo, by Virgil, dam Florence, by Lexington, foaled in 1878, was in some respects a better race horse than Luke Blackburn, as he was a first-class two-year-old, winning seven of his nine starts. Hindoo won the Colt and Filly Stakes at Lexington, the Alexander and Tennessee Stakes at Louisville, the Juvenile and Jockey Club Stakes (one mile for two-year-olds) at St. Louis, the Criterion at Chicago three-fourths mile in 1:13, which was the fastest three-quarters ever run by a two-year-old to that date, and at Gravesend won the Tremont Stakes, one mile. After the latter race he changed hands and at Saratoga ran third to Crickmore and Bonnie Lizzie in the Windsor Hotel Stakes, with Thora and four others behind him, and in the Day Boat Line

Stakes finished second to Thora, in front of Bonnie Lizzie and three others. Hindoo won eighteen out of twenty starts as a three-year-old, including the Juvenile and Jockey Club Stakes at Lexington, the Filly and Filly Stakes at Louisville, the Juvenile and Jockey Club Stakes at St. Louis, the Alexander and Tennessee Stakes at Louisville, the Juvenile and Jockey Club Stakes (one mile for two-year-olds) at St. Louis, the Criterion at Chicago three-fourths mile in 1:13, which was the fastest three-quarters ever run by a two-year-old to that date, and at Gravesend won the Tremont Stakes, one mile. STAR RIDER HAS NEVER BEEN PUNISHED

MILLER HAS EARNED REPUTATION FOR ROUGH RIDING.

He Will Ride in Oakland for Stable of President Williams.

BENNINGS RACE TRACK.
 Nov. 27.—Walter Miller, who will ride at Oakland for the stable of President Williams, has caused no end of comment here by reason of his rough riding tactics. It is openly asserted that the star jockey takes advantage of his stable horses with his own hands, and that he is a member of the stewards of the Jockey Club. So far he appears to be immune from punishment, although his derelictions in the way of foul riding have been too numerous to mention. A. L. Aste protested to the Benning's stewards on Saturday last, against what he considered rough riding on the part of Miller in the first race, a seven furlong dash, over the Columbia course for 2-year-old selling plates. Miller had a leg up on The Clown, the favorite. Mr. Aste started Hooryay with his own boy, Hagan, up, and Hooryay was heavily backed. On Baltimore form it looked very much as though the finish would be between Hooryay and The Clown. Miller evidently thought that Hooryay was the horse he had to beat, for he shut that colt off twice. The stewards, Messrs. Howland, Oxnard and Ross, declined to take action against Miller, because Hagan did not make a protest. Mr. Aste explained that it was a hard matter to get an obscure rider like Hagan to lodge a complaint against a prominent one like Miller, but that he made his protest on the ground that rough riding was not a good thing for the sport. Without disparagement to Miller, the cleverest little horseman in the country today, and a lad who is popular because the public has absolute faith in his honesty, it must be said that there was nothing unreasonable in Aste's protest. Miller has done more rough riding in the last few months than any jockey in the east. It is surprising that he has not been punished. He is a member of the Jockey Club and is loath to discourage the lad they know to be honest. Twice at Aqueduct horses on which he won races should have been disqualified. He should have been severely punished when he won with Herodotus and he handled Varietes as roughly as when he won with Mintia. It behooves the stewards to discipline him if he does not show a greater regard for the rights of others.

MILLS ADOPTS GAME OF HOCKEY

STANFORD UNIVERSITY. Nov. 27.—The authorities of Mills College of Oakland have decided to adopt the game of hockey, and will send delegates to inspect the Stanford field and take stock of the equipments necessary for the game. Miss E. Palmer, '10, the captain of the squad here, has received notification that Miss Gertrude Kimball, president of the Mills Athletic Association, Miss Alice Ross, the basketball coach, and Miss L. Griffith, the gymnasium instructor of the preparatory school, will visit the campus immediately after the Thanksgiving holidays. Matches with the girls from the way will be arranged in the near future.

The first Chinese jockey that has ever ridden in this country had a mount at Aqueduct during the closing days of that track. His real name was James, but he rode under the name of James. He had been a Chinese cook in one of the stables at Sheepshead Bay, and his mother is said to be an Irish woman. James rode Russell, carrying the colors of J. Loughlin, a friend of Charles Kelly, the well-known training-horse man. Kelly had a look at him. He has been exercising him for a good while past and has shown enough skill to warrant those who have watched him to believe that he has a possible future before him as a jockey.

The following are the owners who won races up to Saturday: G. M. Van Gordon, D. Conroy, P. Sheridan, J. P. Hagan, all of whom had captured two events; J. M. Crane, Barney Schreiber, Doc Rowell, H. Hammond, C. Heifers, St. Vincent, Morris & Joseph, Green E. Morris, A. T. Elliott, J. Murray, Daily & Co., Harry S. Fox and E. Co., P. McNeil, J. V. Kirby and Fleur de Lis.

NEW CHARTER IS REFERRED

Proposed New City Charter Will Come up for Discussion Next Meeting.

BERKELEY, Nov. 27.—That the proposed new city charter of Berkeley as framed by a charter committee, of which William Carey Jones of the University of California was chairman, is incomplete in many details and unconstitutional was the statement made by City Attorney Johnson at the regular meeting of the board of trustees last night. The charter was referred to the committee of the whole, and will be discussed section by section at the next meeting of the board.

ENGINEER COMMUNICATES.
In order to set himself clear in the premises, City Engineer W. F. McClure addressed a communication to the board, asking for instructions concerning the opening of certain streets. The communication read:

"In my efforts to prepare the resolutions of intention for the opening of Sixth, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth streets, as per your instructions of recent date, I am unable to determine what streets are already opened and therefore cannot with certainty indicate and describe the land to be taken."

"The uncertainty of ownership is so great that I am not willing to be responsible for the original document in such proceedings."

"I, therefore, recommend that the matter be put into the hands of a competent searcher of records and that the proper ownership of parcels of land which may be streets now, and which may not be streets be determined."

The matter was referred to the city attorney.

SHE WILL EDIT ANNUAL ISSUE

Miss Ehrenberg Has Been Elected to Supervise Issue of School Paper.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 27.—Miss Adele Ehrenberg has been elected by the members of the senior class of the local high school to supervise the editing of the annual issue of the school paper, the Acorn. The book will soon be ready for publication.

It is the custom at the local high school for the graduating class to issue a book each year with the photographs of the class members and matter of interest to them. The staff is separate from the regular staff, which edits the paper monthly. Miss Ehrenberg has been elected as the head. The stories appearing in the book will be under the supervision of Marjorie Cockcroft, the class history will be written by Emil Zinsle, and the class prophecy of Jane Becker.

The book is now on the press, and is full of well written stories and plenty of jokes. The advertising department has been in the care of Lester Hink and William Everts.

Superintendent of Schools Moore returned from the south yesterday, where he has been attending the meeting of the school superintendents of the State. There were some seventy-five heads of departments at the meeting and there was considerable important business transacted.

STOCK REDUCING SALE!

BIG PRICE CUTS ON STYLISH AND DEPENDABLE WINTER CLOTHES FOR MEN AND BOYS

The men in and around Oakland are excellent judges of values and the selling has been swift and steady every day since this sale started. But the assortments are still just as good—and the bargains just as big and numerous—as on the first day. This is because we are continually adding new lots to the sale—we do not intend that the interest shall diminish for lack of bargains.

AMERICANS ARE HONORED

Dinner Given in Honor of Uncle Sam's Folks at Berlin Last Night.

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—Herr von Tschirsky, Secretary of Foreign Affairs, gave a dinner last night in honor of the American Tariff Commission Ambassador Tower, Baron von Siegel, secretary of the Imperial Treasury, Herr von Muehlberg, the under secretary of the Foreign office, the German delegates to the tariff conference and other persons distinguished in public life, including Professor Burgess, professor of American history at the University of Berlin and dean of Columbia University. New York, were present. Herr von Tschirsky made a short speech in which he expressed his pleasure at the presence of the American representatives. Mr. Tower responded expressing confidence in an understanding between Germany and the United States would be reached upon a mutual satisfactory basis and proposed the Limburger health.

Frank H. Mason, American Consul General at Paris, who formerly held the same position in Berlin, and who has arrived here to assist in the tariff commission deliberations, was today officially presented to the Foreign Office officials by Ambassador Tower.

Beale and Caleb, Important Witnesses of Thaw Murder Cannot be Subpoenaed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Clifford W. Hartbridge of counsel for Harry K. Thaw notified District Attorney Jerome yesterday that on Friday application will be made by the defense for two commissioners to be appointed by the Supreme Court to obtain evidence from two men who were with Thaw on the night he shot Stanford White at the Madison Square Roof Garden and who are now out of the local court's jurisdiction and therefore cannot be subpoenaed. The men mentioned in the petition are Truxton Beale, in Bakersfield, Cal., and Thomas M. Caleb, in Chicago.

The petition states that these two men dined with Thaw and his wife on the night of the shooting and that Caleb accompanied the couple to the roof garden. The petition states further that these two witnesses are of vital importance to the defense.

REDDINGTON, IN ANGER, QUILTS SCHOOL BOARD

Chairman of Finance Committee Objected to the Appointment of Manual Trainer.

The creation of the position of supervisor of manual training and domestic science, with a salary of $2012 per year, was made by the city Board of Education last evening, and Professor Coch was appointed to the position. Mr. Coch is an able and well qualified man for the position, and was recommended by Dr. Woods. In praising Mr. Coch, Dr. Woods told of how many youngsters leave school before they should, but in many cases remain with their work because of the lessons taught by Professor Coch. To retain the worthy tutor the board gave him a position in the night school in addition to his other duties. He will now be confined to the manual training of pupils and teaching of domestic science. It was through the creating of the new position in the public schools and the salary attached to it that brought forth a squabble which resulted in C. H. Reddington resigning the chairmanship of the finance committee of the Board of Education.

FALLING WALL KILLS FOREMAN

Toppling Bricks Endanger Lives of Twenty-five Workmen in San Francisco.

A brick wall on the west side of Powell street, between Geary and O'Farrell, in San Francisco, toppled over yesterday afternoon, the brick falling in the midst of twenty-five laborers and instantly killing J. C. Von Kirck, foreman of the gang. Lee Goodman, a brick cleaner, had a narrow escape from death. It was reported that another man was buried in the ruins, but although a large crowd of men worked until dark to remove the pile, a second corpse could not be found.

The plans and specifications of the Prescott school building were exhibited. The city school board then accepted the resignation of Miss Evelyn Gilmore as teacher in the local high school. Miss Gilmore, who has been instructing Miss Gilmore's classes during the absence of the latter, was given the position permanently.

PACKERS ARE BRACING UP

Chief of Bureau Returns to Washington and Reports Conditions Are Improved.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Alonso S. Melvine, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, under whose office the administration of the meat inspection law enacted at the last session of Congress is carried out, has returned from a Western tour of inspection which included a visit to packing houses in Chicago, Milwaukee, Denver and Kansas City. He says everywhere there is apparent beneficial effects of execution of the law and a manifest desire on the part of the packers to comply with its provisions. In some places new structures have replaced old ones, and in others extensive improvements to the plants already established have been made so as to bring them up to the standard required by the meat inspection act for the health and comfort of the packing house employees. Dr. Melvine says there were some cases in which packers have proceeded rather grudgingly in making the necessary improvements, due to the outlay of money required.

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free. DETECTIVES FAIL TO TRACE "ILL" SUPERVISOR

The Efforts to Locate Sanderson Are Unavailing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—Efforts of detectives and newspaper men have proven in vain to locate the whereabouts of Supervisor W. W. Sanderson. He left this city for Los Angeles about two weeks ago, presumably on his health, and his friends say he is at the Lakeside Hotel, too ill to be seen. The statement is not believed by the detectives, who are of the opinion he has made tracks, probably for Mexico.

Sanderson left San Francisco on the pretense he wished to take his invalid mother to Los Angeles. He was to return at once. After getting out of the reach of Heney and Burns, he used many promises to keep out of sight. Telegrams are now being sent throughout Arizona to obtain trace of him.

Sanderson's divorced wife in San Francisco knows nothing of his whereabouts.

'BONA-FIDE AUCTION SALES, I GUESS NOT,' SAYS MENDEL

Sensational Statement Made by Old-Time Furniture Appraiser and Salesman.

What was a simple suit, entitled Henry C. Morris vs. The Bekins Van and Storage Company, develops into a tale of bunco, if the sworn statements of a foreman auctioneer in Judge Ellsworth's court this morning goes for anything.

The sales, so far as I know," was the statement that created the sensation, and it was made by I. Mendel, furniture appraiser and salesman who was for fifteen years with Charles Levy in San Francisco. Since the fire Mr. Mendel has been with H. Scheinhaus of this city, and he testified this morning as an expert in the case mentioned.

On April 16th, so runs this tale of woe, Mr. Morris confided to the care of the horny handed and careless furniture disturbers of The Bekins Van Company something like a thousand dollars' worth of more or less useful trousseaus and articles of vertu constituting the household goods of Morris family, Jr.

The earth settled down a little directly afterward, flames saw the Morris' household. Comes, then, Mr. Morris and says the Bekins Van people were in possession of his goods and wants the whereabouts to the extent of 1000 rose nobles, pieces of eight, louis d' orr, richthalers, marks or double doubloons to duplicate the articles of use and vertu claimed by the fire.

Co. and heartless as a spiced mummy fresh from the tombs of Egypt, comes the defendant Van Company and says Mr. Morris' goods are "phony," and speaks for them Mr. Mendel.

Said Mr. Mendel: "People get excited at auction sales and you can sell them nearly anything" (deprecatingly) "but, of course, we all know mahogany chairs at $27.50 are sold to 'us' for $7.50."

Right there Mr. Mendel and the attorneys disagreed, but it seemed to be shown that the articles of bric-a-brac and a miscellany of household goods purchased by the son of Henry Morris, millionaire, were taken at cheap sales where varnish constituted what there was of glitter and glamour, and the sole attributes of age in connection with the heirlooms in discussion were lost by their acceptance of the usages of a time-honored graft.

PARDEE NAMES COMMISSIONER

Vacancy in Bank Commission Is Given to John C. Currier of San Francisco.

Word has reached this city from Sacramento that John C. Currier has been appointed by Governor Pardee to fill the vacancy on the State Board of Bank Commissioners left by the resignation of Zoeth S. Eldridge more than a year ago. Eldridge, who was appointed to the Board in 1903, resigned at the time of the formation of the National Bank of the Pacific, of which movement he was one of the leading spirits. Since that time there has been no suggestion of a successor to the retired Commissioner, and the appointment of Currier is looked upon as merely a step in the general policy of Governor Pardee to fill up all possible appointments before his term expires.

John C. Currier, the new Bank Commissioner, has been prominent in local affairs for several years. Formerly he was in business here, but of late years he has merely maintained an office as a notary public. At one time he was a candidate for the office of Adjutant-General.

According to ex-Commissioner Eldridge, Currier's appointment will be good only until June 30th of next year, when Eldridge's term would have expired. The term of C. H. Dunsmuir will expire at the same date. Herman Silver and N. Blackstock, the other Commissioners, will be in office for two years longer.

2 LARCENY CHARGES AGAINST NEGRO

Accused of stealing two bicycles, Harry B. Redd, a negro, was arraigned in department one of the police court this morning on two charges of grand larceny. His preliminary examinations were set for December 7.

Redd was arrested on November 23d by Policeman McKeegan, on suspicion of being one of the bicycle thieves who have been so successful in this city for the past few months.

It was found that Redd had stolen two wheels from Carl Deckow and Nicholas Castro, and they have sworn to complaints against the prisoner, charging him with grand larceny.

TWO BALES OF TOBACCO STOLEN

New Cure For Rupture

New Scientific Appliance, Always Perfect Fit—Adjustable to Any Size Person—Easy, Comfortable, Never Slips, No Obnoxious Springs or Pads—Costs Less Than Many Common Trusses—Made for Men, Women or Children.

I Send it on Approval—You Wear It—If You Are Not Satisfied, I Refund Your Money.

I have invented a rupture appliance that I can safely say, by 30 years' experience in the rupture business, is the only one that will absolutely hold the rupture and never slip and yet is cool, comfortable and conforms to every movement of the body without chafing or hurting and costs less than many ordinary trusses. I have put the price so low that any person, rich or poor, can buy, and I absolutely guarantee it. I make it to your order—send it to you—wear it, and if it doesn't satisfy you, send it back to me and I will refund your money. That is the fairest proposition ever made by a rupture specialist. The banks or any responsible citizen in Marshall will tell you that is the way I do business—always absolutely on the square.

Jas. Britton, Cured of Rupture by C. E. Brooks.

Here is what Mr. Jas. Britton, a prominent manufacturer of Bethlehem, Pa., writes:

"C. E. Brooks, Esq. Dear Sir—I have been ruptured six years and have always had trouble with it. I got your appliance, and it is very nice to wear. It fits me and snug and is not in the way at any time, day or night. In fact at times I did not know I had it on. It just adapted itself to the shape of the body and clung to the spot no matter what position I was in. It would be a veritable God-send to the unfortunate who suffer from rupture, if it could procure the Brooks Rupture Appliance and wear it. They certainly would never regret it. My rupture is all healed up and nothing ever did it but your appliance. Jas. Britton." If you have tried most everything else, come to me. Where others fail is where I have my greatest success. Write me today and I will send you my book on Rupture and its Cure, showing my appliance and giving you prices and names of people who have tried it and been cured. It is instant relief when all others fail. Remember I use no salves, no harness, no lies. Just a straight business deal at a reasonable price. C. E. BROOKS, 2361 Brooks Building, Marshall, Mich.

SECRETARY METCALF REPORTS ON EDUCATION OF JAPANESE MOST IMPORTANT MATTER BEFORE THE CABINET

BARON HERRENSCHWAND SCORES THE ORIENTALS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Secretary Metcalf came to the Cabinet meeting today with a big portfolio which, it was generally supposed, contained his report on the situation growing out of the alleged discrimination against the Japanese in the matter of school facilities in San Francisco.

"This was expected to be one of the most important matters discussed at the Cabinet meeting today.

All the members were present at the meeting for the first time since the beginning of the present campaign.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—The Japanese are a crooked race of people, and it is only a question of time before some great nation will have to take arms against that country and teach it a lesson. I would like to see the United States involved in war with Japan, and you may be assured that Japan's defeat will mean a blessing for the entire world.

So spoke Baron V. W. de Herrenschwand, who lives in Switzerland, who arrived here yesterday on the liner Siberia. The Baron is touring the world, and made a stay in Japan.
He traveled through the Mikado's empire and the result of his observations was anything but eulogy of the Japanese. He stated that the people inclined to mendacity and insincerity, and so arrogant were they that it was uncomfortable to live in their midst.

Baron Herrenschwand is well known in the Orient, having visited there several times, but this is his first trip to San Francisco. His father is Mayor of Bern, the capital of Switzerland, and his uncle is a field marshal of the Austrian army.

SECRETARY VICTOR H. METCALF, who is this afternoon making his report to President Roosevelt and Cabinet.

TASK OF TAX CLERKS END

Fagged Workers Celebrate Finish of Collecting Period by Banquet.

Last night the time for the collection of county taxes came to a close and the force of men employed in the tax collector's office ceased from their labors.
The collector himself, his chief deputy,
W. B. Hodges, and the other attaches were almost exhausted from their unremitting labors in giving information to the public regarding tax bills, answering a myriad of vexatious questions and receiving taxes with the greatest dispatch.
In order to not exhaust the patience of citizens by keeping them standing in line awaiting their turn.

In ordinary times the force of men allocated by the statute to the tax collector's office is inadequate to perform the work devolving upon that department. As a consequence, Mr. Barber has, at times, at his own expense, been obliged to supply the deficiency occasioned by the lack of help.

This year the inadequacy of the clerical force was made more apparent than ever because the population of Alameda county has increased by thousands in the past few months and of these more than fifty per cent have become property owners and were, therefore, obliged to appear during the last few weeks at the office of the tax collector to pay taxes on this property they had acquired.

To tax office never saw such a crush before, but the work was done in statutory time.

After a short respite, during which the chief and attaches expressed the relief they experienced at the close of their arduous labors, the party marched to the California restaurant on Eleventh street, where, with Tax Collector Barber as host, the deputies, assistants and a few invited friends sat down to the annual dinner which always signifies the close of the tax collecting season in Mr. Barber's office. An appetizing menu had been prepared and was served in an excellent manner. The principal feature of the bill was roast duck and, for this reason, the spread has become known as
"Jim Barber's duck dinner." There was no person present who had not a whetted appetite for the savory morsels, a fact which was attested by the relish displayed in the discussion of the viands. Good cheer and feeling of fellowship added a charming element to the occasion, and these were heightened by congratulatory references to the host, bits of eloquence and catchy stories which set the table in a roar. Those who sat around the board were James Barber, W. B. Hodges, Judge
Elmer E. Johnson, Fred M. Malley, James
Ramage, William Owen, W. P. Dillon,
William Barstow, C. T. Peterson, Edward
Kirk, Joseph Ford, Judge T. W. Harris,
Judge George Samuels, County Clerk J. P.
Cook, A. S. Warner, A. S. Parsons, George
Hesse, George I. Emerson and P. M.
Hegman.

Lesson No. 2
from Willie's Correspondence School

How to handle the man who wants to look around. After you have shown about 2 or 3 suits, and he gets nervous, and looks toward the door, just stop right where you are and keep still; he will then say something like this,
"Well, I guess I will look around and see what I can find. Maybe I can get a suit that hasn't so much color in it, and one that fits me better in the back." Don't get gay—keep temper and smile, tell your customer to wait a minute. Go and get your hat and then tell him you will go along and see what other people have got, for you want to see any suit which will fit better than the one he just had on—start toward the door and when you get there your customer will be trying on the coat again, and if you let him have his way he will go to the dressing room and put on the pants and hand you $20, and say to wrap up his old suit; get his mind off that look-around business, and you have got him sold.

Hint No. 5.—Suspenders, underwear, waists and sweaters all make dandy gifts for a boy—and when they come from this store you can just bet any amount that your boy is going to be tickled into fits when he wakes up Christmas morning, if they come from

NEWMAN FINED FOR BATTERY

Charles Newman was fined $50 by Judge Cabanis in San Francisco yesterday for having committed battery upon Attorney H. C. Quinby. The charge grew out of an altercation between the two men some weeks ago in Quinby's office over an adjustment of insurance.

Quinby, who represented the Eagle Fire Insurance Company of New York, as its attorney, was knocked down and out by Newman, as a result of a disagreement over the insurance of the Russ house.
Newman asked for five days' time in which to frame an appeal from the decision of the court.

CHANGE IN TIME

Commencing the 28th inst. there will be a change in the time of the Santa

MAN BURNED IN PUTTING OUT FIRE

Daniel Riley, a watchman with residence at 516 Third street, while attempting to put out a fire in a shoddy factory under his charge, was slightly burned and his hand lacerated this morning. Fire sutures were required to mend his injury
at the Receiving hospital.

DIES WHILE TESTIFYING

L. Meyerstein, Wealthy San Franciscan Is Stricken With Apoplexy in Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—When about to take the witness stand to testify in a suit involving many thousands of dollars, Lewis Meyerstein, a wealthy retired merchant and capitalist of this city, was stricken with apoplexy in Judge Sewell's courtroom yesterday afternoon and expired in the arms of Attorney W. F.
Humphrey. Physicians were hastily summoned, but arrived too late to be of service. Alfred Meyerstein, the late capitalist's son, was notified and took charge of the body.

Mr. C. N. Ellinwood and Dr. F. Deman were called, but when they arrived the stricken man had breathed his last.
On hearing of the death Judge Seawell notified Garret McEnery and Earl Humphrey & Garnett, attorneys for Meyerstein, and Hilmyer, Melniks & O'Brien, attorneys for Dana, that the case was off the calendar.

SIMPSON'S LECTURES.

Evangelist Simpson evidently believes in keeping his audiences comfortable during his "interesting lectures. He has his tent furnished with comfortable chairs and carpet and three large stoves, which are plentifully supplied with fuel during the hours of 7 to 10. He will answer objections this evening to the position he takes on the fate of the wicked, viz:

They are not eternally tortured.
